

Press Release: Monday, April 15, 2019

Appellate Division, First Department to Hold Session in Bronx County Hall of Justice

Presiding Justice Rolando T. Acosta is pleased to announce that on Wednesday, April 24, 2019, the Appellate Division, First Department will hear oral arguments in a regular session of Court at the Bronx County Hall of Justice, located at 265 East 161st Street, Bronx, New York.

Bronx County is one of the two counties over which the Appellate Division, First Department holds jurisdiction. The April 24th calendar will consist of appeals originating from Bronx Supreme Court, Civil and Criminal Terms, Bronx Family Court and Bronx Surrogate's Court. Arguments are open to the public and will begin at 2:00 p.m.

Interested persons may attend the oral arguments in person or watch live from any internet-connected device via the Appellate Division, First Department's website (<http://www.nycourts.gov/courts/ad1/index.shtml>).