The Office of Attorneys for Children, Appellate Division, Second Department, has prepared this Administrative Handbook to acquaint you with the operation of its Program.

The Office of Attorneys for Children seeks to provide the highest quality legal services to children involved in the judicial system. Attorneys for children are compensated for their work and reimbursed for reasonable expenses associated with the representation of their clients.

Included in this Handbook is a separate section for Assigned Counsel in the Family Courts of Kings, Queens and Richmond counties. Members of the Panels in those three counties are required to serve both as counsel for children and Assigned Counsel ("18b"). Pursuant to Appellate Division Rule 22 NYCRR 678.11, the Law Guardian Program is responsible for the administration of the Family Court Assigned Counsel Program in those three counties.

Please review the information contained in this Handbook, and retain it for future reference. While the judgment and skills of each individual attorney are the single most important tools they have to offer their clients, the methods, suggestions, and law contained in this Handbook should also prove a valuable resource.

The Appellate Division, Second Department, Office of Attorneys for Children, and the courts in which you will be serving, are grateful to you for your work on behalf of children.

We hope this Handbook provides assistance in your important work.

POLICY CONSIDERATIONS:

THE ROLE OF THE ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD

The role of the attorney for the child is to serve as a child's lawyer. The attorney for the child has the responsibility to represent and advocate the child's wishes and interests in the proceeding or action. To that end, counsel for children are to meet with every child-client, regardless of age. An Attorney for the Child(ren) should always act in a manner consistent with proper legal practice and should not assume the role of a social worker, psychologist or advocate for one of the parties. Although it may be tempting to step outside of the role of counsel for the child, particularly when the circumstances of the case are especially tragic, the rules of good lawyering are as applicable to as to any attorney in a civil proceeding or action. Examples of improper practices include communicating with the parties in absence of their counsel and presenting reports containing facts which are not part of the record.

A rule relating to the function of the attorney for the child has been promulgated by order of the Chief Judge dated October 17, 2007 as follows:

§7.2 Function of the attorney for the child.

(a) As used in this part, "attorney for the child" means a law guardian appointed by the family court pursuant to section 249 of the Family Court Act, or by the supreme court or a surrogate's court in a proceeding over which the family court might have exercised jurisdiction had such action or proceeding been commenced in family court or referred thereto.

(b) The attorney for the child is subject to the ethical requirements applicable to all lawyers, including but not limited to constraints on: ex parte communication; disclosure of client confidences and attorney work product; conflicts of interest; and becoming a witness in the litigation.

(c) In juvenile delinquency and person in need of supervision proceedings, where the child is the respondent, the attorney for the child must zealously defend the child.

(d) In other types of proceedings, where the child is the subject, the attorney for the child must zealously advocate the child's position.

(1) In ascertaining the child's position, the attorney for the child must consult with and advise the child to the extent of and in a manner consistent with the child's capacities, and have a thorough knowledge of the child's circumstances.

(2) If the child is capable of knowing, voluntary and considered judgment, the attorney for the child should be directed by the wishes of the child, even if the attorney for the child believes that what the child wants is not in the child's best interests. The attorney should explain fully the options available to the child, and may recommend to the child a course of action that in the attorney's view would best promote the child's interests.

(3) When the attorney for the child is convinced either that the child lacks the capacity for knowing, voluntary and considered judgment, or that following the child's wishes is likely to result in a substantial risk of imminent, serious harm to the child, the attorney for the child would be justified in advocating a position that is contrary to the child's wishes. In these circumstances, the attorney for the child must inform the court of the child's articulated wishes if the child wants the attorney to do so, notwithstanding the attorney's position.

Summary of the Responsibilities of the Attorney for the Child

The Statewide Advisory Committee on Counsel for Children has developed as summary of the responsibilities of the attorney for the child:

While the activities of the attorney for the child will vary with the circumstances of each client and proceeding, in general those activities will include, but not be limited to, the following:

- (1) Commence representation of the child promptly upon being notified of the appointment;
- (2) Contact, interview and provide initial services to the child at the earliest practical opportunity, and prior to the first court appearance when feasible;
- (3) Consult with and advise the child regularly concerning the course of the proceeding, maintain contact with the child so as to be aware of and respond to the child's concerns and significant changes in the child's circumstances, and remain accessible to the child;
- (4) Conduct a full factual investigation and become familiar with all information and documents relevant to representation of the child. To that end, the lawyer for the child shall retain and consult with all experts necessary to assist in the representation of the child.
- (5) Evaluate the legal remedies and services available to the child and pursue appropriate strategies for achieving case objectives;
- (6) Appear at and participate actively in proceedings pertaining to the child;
- (7) Remain accessible to the child and other appropriate individuals and agencies to monitor implementation of the dispositional and permanency orders, and seek intervention of the court to assure compliance with those orders or otherwise protect the interests of the child, while those orders are in effect; and
- (8) Evaluate and pursue appellate remedies available to the child, including the expedited relief provided by statute, and participate actively in any appellate litigation pertaining to the child that is initiated by another party, unless the Appellate Division grants the application of the attorney for the child for appointment of a different attorney to represent the child on appeal.

FAMILY COURT ACT

Attorneys for Children

§ 241. Findings and Purpose

This act declares that minors who are the subject of family court proceedings or appeals in proceedings originating in the family court should be represented by counsel of their own choosing or by an attorney for the child. This declaration is based on a finding that counsel is often indispensable to a practical realization of due process of law and may be helpful in making reasoned determinations of fact and proper orders of disposition. This part establishes a system of attorneys for children for minors who often require the assistance of counsel to help protect their interests and to help them express their wishes to the court. Nothing in this act is intended to preclude any other interested person from appearing by counsel.

§ 242. Attorney for the Child

As used in this act, "attorney for the child" refers to an attorney admitted to practice law in the state of New York and designated under this part to represent minors pursuant to section two hundred and forty-nine of this act.

§ 243. Designation

- (a) The office of court administration may enter into an agreement with a legal aid society for the society to provide attorneys to represent children in the family court or appeals in proceedings originating in the family court in a county having a legal aid society.
- (b) The appellate division of the supreme court for the judicial department in which a county is located may, upon determining that a county panel designated pursuant to subdivision (c) of this section is not sufficient to afford appropriate services of attorneys for children, enter into an agreement, subject to regulations as may be promulgated by the administrative board of the courts, with any qualified attorney or attorneys to serve as attorneys for children for the family court or appeals in proceedings originating in the family court in that county.
- (c) The appellate division of the supreme court for the judicial department in which a county is located may designate a panel of attorneys for children for the family court and appeals in proceedings originating in the family court in that county, subject to the approval of the administrative board of the courts. For this purpose, it may invite a bar association to recommend qualified persons for consideration by the said appellate division in making its designation, subject to standards as may be promulgated by such administrative board.

§ 244. Duration of Designation

- (a) An agreement pursuant to subdivision (a) of section two hundred forty-three of this chapter may be terminated by the office of court administration by serving notice on the society sixty days prior to the effective date of the termination.
- (b) No designations pursuant to subdivision (c) of such section two hundred forty-three may be for a term of more than one year, but successive designations may be made. The appellate division proceeding pursuant to such subdivision (c) may at any time increase or decrease the number of attorneys for children designated in any county and may rescind any designation at any time, subject to the approval of the office of court administration.

§ 245. Compensation

- (a) If the office of court administration proceeds pursuant to subdivision (a) of section two hundred forty-three of this chapter, the agreement shall provide that the society shall be reimbursed on a cost basis for services rendered under the agreement. The agreement shall contain a general plan for the organization and operation of the providing of attorneys for children by the respective legal aid society, approved by the said administrative board, and the office of court administration may require such reports as it deems necessary from the society.
- (b) If an appellate division proceeds pursuant to subdivision (b) of such section two hundred forty-three, the agreement may provide that the attorney or attorneys shall be reimbursed on a cost basis for services rendered under the agreement. The agreement shall contain a general plan for the organization and operation of the providing of attorneys for children by the respective attorney or attorneys, and the appellate division may require such reports as it deems necessary from the attorney or attorneys.
- (c) If an appellate division proceeds pursuant to subdivision (c) of such section two hundred forty-three, attorneys for children shall be compensated and allowed expenses and disbursements in the same amounts established by subdivision three of section thirty-five of the judiciary law.

§ 246. Supervision by Administrative Board

The administrative board of the judicial conference may prescribe standards for the exercise of the powers granted to the appellate divisions under this part and may require such reports as it deems desirable.

§ 248. Appropriations

The costs of attorneys for children under section two hundred forty-five shall be payable by the state of New York within the amounts appropriated therefor.

§ 249. Appointment of Attorney for the Child

(a) In a proceeding under article three, seven, ten, ten-A or ten-C of this act or where a revocation of an adoption consent is opposed under section one hundred fifteen-b of the domestic relations law or in any proceeding under section three hundred fifty-eight-a, three hundred eighty-three-c, three hundred eighty-four or three hundred eighty-four-b of the social services law or when a minor is sought to be placed in protective custody under section one hundred fifty-eight of this act, the family court shall appoint an attorney to represent a minor who is the subject of the proceeding or who is sought to be placed in protective custody, if independent legal representation is not available to such minor. In any proceeding to extend or continue the placement of a juvenile delinquent or person in need of supervision pursuant to section seven hundred fifty-six or 353.3 of this act or any proceeding to extend or continue a commitment to the custody of the commissioner of mental health or the commissioner of mental retardation and developmental disabilities pursuant to section 322.2 of this act, the court shall not permit the respondent to waive the right to be represented by counsel chosen by the respondent, respondent's parent, or other person legally responsible for the respondent's care, or by assigned counsel. In any proceeding under article ten-B of this act, the family court shall appoint an attorney to represent a youth, under the age of twenty-one, who is the subject of the proceeding, if independent legal representation is not available to such youth. In any other proceeding in which the court has jurisdiction, the court may appoint an attorney to represent the child, when, in the opinion of the family court judge, such representation will serve the purposes of this act, if independent legal counsel is not available to the child. The family court on its own motion may make such appointment.

(b) In making an appointment of an attorney for a child pursuant to this section, the court shall, to the extent practicable and appropriate, appoint the same attorney who has previously represented the child.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in a proceeding under article three of this act following an order of removal made pursuant to article seven hundred twenty-five of the criminal procedure law, the court shall, wherever practicable, appoint the same counsel who represented the juvenile offender in the criminal proceedings.

§ 249-a. Waiver of Counsel

A minor who is a subject of a juvenile delinquency or person in need of supervision proceeding shall be presumed to lack the requisite knowledge and maturity to waive the appointment of an attorney. This presumption may be rebutted only after an attorney has been appointed and the court determines after a hearing at which the attorney appears and participates and upon clear and convincing evidence that (a) the minor understands the nature of the charges, the possible dispositional alternatives and the possible defenses to the charges, (b) the minor possesses the maturity, knowledge and intelligence necessary to conduct his own defense, and (c) waiver is in the best interest of the minor.

§ 35. Assignment of Counsel to Indigent Persons and Appointment of Physicians in Certain Proceedings

3. No counsel assigned pursuant to this section shall seek or accept any fee for representing the person for whom he or she is assigned without approval of the court as herein provided. Whenever it appears that such person is financially able to obtain counsel or make partial payment for the representation, counsel may report this fact to the court and the court may terminate the assignment or authorize payment, as the interests of justice may dictate, to such counsel. Counsel assigned hereunder shall at the conclusion of the representation receive compensation at a rate of seventy-five dollars per hour for time expended in court, and seventy-five dollars per hour for time reasonably expended out of court, and shall receive reimbursement for expenses reasonably incurred. For representation upon a hearing, compensation and reimbursement shall be fixed by the court wherein the hearing was held and such compensation shall not exceed four thousand four hundred dollars. For representation in an appellate court, compensation and reimbursement shall be fixed by such court and such compensation shall not exceed four thousand four hundred dollars. In extraordinary circumstances the court may provide for compensation in excess of the foregoing limits.

7. Whenever the supreme court or a surrogate's court shall appoint counsel in a proceeding over which the family court might have exercised jurisdiction had such action or proceeding been commenced in family court or referred thereto pursuant to law, and under circumstances whereby, if such proceeding were pending in family court, such court would be authorized by section two hundred forty-nine of the family court act to appoint attorney for the child, such counsel shall be compensated in accordance with the provisions of this section.

NOTE: Paragraphs 1, 2, 4, 5, 6 and 8 of this section are not reprinted here.

The court upon a finding that timely procurement of necessary services could not await prior authorization may authorize the services nunc pro tunc. The rules cannot be written in a way that foresees every situation in which they should be applied. Therefore, the appointment of trained and competent persons, and the avoidance of factors unrelated to the merit of the appointments or the value of the work performed are the fundamental objectives that should guide all appointments made, and orders issued, pursuant to this Part.

In making appointments of persons or entities to perform services for guardians or receivers, the appointing judge may consider the recommendation of the guardian or receiver.
- (b) Use of lists.
- (1) All appointments pursuant to this Part shall be made by the appointing judge from the appropriate list of applicants established by the Chief Administrator of the Courts pursuant to section 36.3 of this Part.

The appointing judge shall send a copy of such writing to the Chief Administrator. A judge may not appoint a person or entity that has been removed from a list pursuant to section 36.3(e).

 - (4) (i) No person who is the chair or executive director, or their equivalent, of a state or county political party, or the spouse, sibling, parent or child of that official, shall be appointed while that official serves in that position and for a period of two years after that official no longer holds that position. This prohibition shall apply to the members, associates, counsel and employees of any law firms or entities while the official is associated with that firm or entity.
 - (ii) No person who has served as a campaign chair, coordinator, manager, treasurer or finance chair for a candidate for judicial office, or the spouse, sibling, parent or child of that person, or anyone associated with the law firm of that person, shall be appointed by the judge for whom that service was performed for a period of two years following the judicial election. If the candidate is a sitting judge, the disqualifications shall apply as well from the time the person assumes any of the above roles during the campaign for judicial office.
 - (5) No former judge or housing judge of the Unified Court System, or the spouse, sibling, parent or child of such judge, shall be appointed, within two years from the date the judge left judicial office, by a court within the jurisdiction where the judge served. Jurisdiction is defined as follows:
 - (i) The jurisdiction of a judge of the Court of Appeals shall be statewide.

 - (7) No person convicted of a felony, or for five years following the date of sentencing after conviction of a misdemeanor (unless otherwise waived by the Chief Administrator upon application), shall be appointed unless that person receives a certificate of relief from disabilities.

- (8) No receiver or guardian shall be appointed as his or her own counsel, and no person associated with a law firm of that receiver or guardian shall be appointed as counsel to that receiver or guardian, unless there is a compelling reason to do so.
- (9) No attorney for an alleged incapacitated person shall be appointed as guardian to that person, or as counsel to the guardian of that person.
- (10) No person serving as a court evaluator shall be appointed as guardian for the incapacitated person except under extenuating circumstances that are set forth in writing and filed with the fiduciary clerk at the time of the appointment.

(d) Limitations on appointments based upon compensation.

- (1) No person or entity shall be eligible to receive more than one appointment within a calendar year for which the compensation anticipated to be awarded to the appointee in any calendar year exceeds the sum of $15,000.
- (2) If a person or entity has been awarded more than an aggregate of $75,000 in compensation by all courts during any calendar year, the person or entity shall not be eligible for compensated appointments by any court during the next calendar year.
- (3) For purposes of this Part, the term "compensation" shall mean awards by a court of fees, commissions, allowances or other compensation, excluding costs and disbursements.
- (4) These limitations shall not apply where the appointment is necessary to maintain continuity of representation of or service to the same person or entity in further or subsequent proceedings.

§ 36.3 PROCEDURE FOR APPOINTMENT

(a) Application for appointment. The Chief Administrator shall provide for the application by persons or entities seeking appointments pursuant to this Part on such forms as shall be promulgated by the Chief Administrator. The forms shall contain such information as is necessary to establish that the applicant meets the qualifications for the appointments covered by this Part and to apprise the appointing judge of the applicant's background.

(b) Qualifications for appointment. The Chief Administrator shall establish requirements of education and training for placement on the list of available applicants. These requirements shall consist, as appropriate, of substantive issues pertaining to each category of appointment — including applicable law, procedures, and ethics — as well as explications of the rules and procedures implementing the process established by this Part. Education and training courses and programs shall meet the requirements of these rules only if certified by the Chief Administrator. Attorney participants in these education and training courses and programs may be eligible for continuing legal education credit in accordance with the requirements of the Continuing Legal Education Board.

(c) Establishment of lists. The Chief Administrator shall establish separate lists of qualified applicants for each category of appointment, and shall make available such information as will enable the appointing judge to be apprised of the background of each applicant. The Chief Administrator may establish more than one list for the same appointment category where appropriate to apprise the appointing judge of applicants who have substantial experience in that category. Pursuant to section 81.32(b) of the Mental Hygiene Law, the Presiding Justice of the appropriate Appellate Division shall designate the qualified applicants on the lists of court examiners established by the Chief Administrator.

(d) Reregistration. The Chief Administrator shall establish a procedure requiring that each person or entity on a list reregister every two years in order to remain on the list.

(e) Removal from list. The Chief Administrator may remove any person or entity from any list for unsatisfactory performance or any conduct incompatible with appointment from that list, or if disqualified from appointment pursuant to this Part. A person or entity may not be removed except upon receipt of a written statement of reasons for the removal and an opportunity to provide an explanation and to submit facts in opposition to the removal.

§ 36.4 PROCEDURE AFTER APPOINTMENT

(a) Notice of appointment and certification of compliance.

- (1) Every person or entity appointed pursuant to this Part shall file with the fiduciary clerk of the court from which the appointment is made, within 30 days of the making of the appointment, (i) a notice of appointment and (ii) a certification of compliance with this Part, on such form as promulgated by the Chief Administrator. Copies of this form shall be made available at the office of the fiduciary clerk and shall be transmitted by that clerk to the appointee immediately after the making of the appointment by the appointing judge. An appointee who accepts an appointment without compensation need not complete the certification of compliance portion of the form.

- (2) The notice of appointment shall contain the date of the appointment and the nature of the appointment.
- (3) The certification of compliance shall include:
 - (i) a statement that the appointment is in compliance with sections 36.2(c) and (d); and (ii) a list of all appointments received, or for which compensation has been awarded, during the current calendar year and the year immediately preceding the current calendar year, which shall contain (A) the name of the judge who made each appointment, (B) the compensation awarded, and (C) where compensation remains to be awarded, (i) the compensation anticipated to be awarded and (ii) separate identification of those appointments for which compensation of $15000 or more is anticipated to be awarded during any calendar year. The list shall include the appointment for which the filing is made.
- (4) A person or entity who is required to complete the certification of compliance, but who is unable to certify that the appointment is in compliance with this Part, shall immediately so inform the appointing judge.

(b) Approval of compensation.

- (1) Upon seeking approval of compensation of more than $500, an appointee must file with the fiduciary clerk, on such form as is promulgated by the Chief Administrator, a statement of approval of compensation, which shall contain a confirmation to be signed by the fiduciary clerk that the appointee has filed the notice of appointment and certification of compliance.
- (2) A judge shall not approve compensation of more than $500, and no compensation shall be awarded, unless the appointee has filed the notice of appointment and certification of compliance form required by this Part and the fiduciary clerk has confirmed to the appointing judge the filing of that form.
- (3) Each approval of compensation of $5,000 or more to appointees pursuant to this section shall be accompanied by a statement, in writing, of the reasons therefor by the judge. The judge shall file a copy of the order approving compensation and the statement with the fiduciary clerk at the time of the signing of the order.
- (4) Compensation to appointees shall not exceed the fair value of services rendered. Appointees who serve as counsel to a guardian or receiver shall not be compensated as counsel for services that should have been performed by the guardian or receiver.

(c) Reporting of compensation received by law firms. A law firm whose members, associates and employees have had a total of $50,000 or more in compensation approved in a single calendar year for appointments made pursuant to this Part shall report such amounts on a form promulgated by the Chief Administrator.

(d) Exception. The procedure set forth in this section shall not apply to the appointment of a referee to sell real property and a referee to compute whose compensation for such appointments is not anticipated to exceed $750.

(e) Approval and Reporting of Compensation Received by Counsel to the Public Administrator.

- (1) A judge shall not approve compensation to counsel to the public administrator in excess of the fee schedule promulgated by the administrative board of the public administrator under SCPA 1128 unless accompanied by the judge's statement, in writing, of the reasons therefor, and by the appointee's affidavit of legal services under SCPA 1108 setting forth in detail the services rendered, the time spent, and the method or basis by which the requested compensation was determined.
- (2) Any approval of compensation in excess of the fee schedule promulgated by the administrative board of the public administrator shall be reported to the Office of Court Administration on a form promulgated by the Chief Administrator and shall be accompanied by a copy of the order approving compensation, the judge's written statement, and the counsel's affidavit of legal services, which records shall be published as determined by the Chief Administrator.
- (3) Each approval of compensation of $5,000 or more to counsel shall be reported to the Office of Court Administration on a form promulgated by the Chief Administrator and shall be published as determined by the Chief Administrator.

§ 36.5 PUBLICATION OF APPOINTMENTS.

- (a) All forms filed pursuant to section 36.4 shall be public records.
- (b) The Chief Administrator shall arrange for the periodic publication of the names of all persons and entities appointed by each appointing judge, and the compensation approved for each appointee.

(c) Subject to the provisions of subdivision (f) of this section, where an attorney has conflicting engagements in the same court or different courts, the affected courts shall determine in which matters adjournments shall be granted and in which matters the parties shall proceed. In making such decisions, they shall, to the extent lawful and practicable, give priority to actions and proceedings in the order in which matters are listed below:

(1) child protective proceedings;

(2) criminal proceedings or juvenile delinquency proceedings wherein the defendant or respondent is incarcerated;

(3) proceedings based on acts which constitute felonies;

Matters involving exceptional circumstances shall be given priority over all others, except those entitled to statutory preference. A court may find exceptional circumstances where: (1) there are four or more attorneys engaged for a trial, hearing or appellate argument therein; (2) a party or material witness will be available for a trial or hearing therein only on the date on which the conflict arises or on any subsequent date during the period such trial or hearing reasonably can be expected to extend; (3) a party or material witness thereto is afflicted with an illness which, because of its nature, requires that the trial of the action or proceeding be held on the date on which the conflict arises; or (4) a trial therein must be conducted within statutory time limits and, if trial of the matter is not held on the date on which the conflict arises, there is a reasonable probability that the time limit applicable thereto will elapse.

ATTORNEYS FOR CHILDREN COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT GUIDELINES

Introduction

The Attorneys for Children Program is responsible for compensating attorneys for children and for paying reasonable disbursements incurred in the representation of their clients. This document describes the policies and procedures which govern how payments are made.

A. Panel Membership Required

1. An attorney must be a member of a county Attorneys for Children Panel or of the Appellate Division's Attorneys for Children Appeals Panel to be compensated as an attorney for the child.

2. Panel Members must comply with the attorney registration requirements of Judiciary Law § 468-a, and are expected to notify the OCA Attorney Registration Unit and update their Attorneys for Children Internet Voucher System profile of any change of contact information.

B. Compensation Rates

1. Rate of Compensation:

Attorneys for Children representation in both trial and appellate court proceedings are compensated at the rate of $75 per hour for both in-court and out-of-court time. Services provided before January 1, 2004 should be charged at $25 per hour out-of- court and $40 per hour in-court.

2. Compensation Rates in Excess of the Statutory Limits:

Claims for compensation in excess of the statutory maximum of $4,400 require an affirmation of “extraordinary circumstances” to be submitted as part of your online voucher. You will be prompted by the Attorneys for Children Internet Voucher Program to prepare and submit your affirmation. A copy should be included with the original voucher. The affirmation should set forth the extraordinary circumstances that compelled the expenditure of time. The following, which must be described in detail, are among the factors which may be considered in determining whether extraordinary circumstances exist justifying a fee in excess of statutory limits: unusually complex factual or legal issues; novel issues of law requiring extensive legal research; or lengthy trial or other in-court proceedings which alone raise the compensation claim above statutory limits. This applies to both trial and appellate work.

C. Compensation Guidelines

1. In Court and Out-of-Court Time

a) In-court time is time spent at court facilities in the presence of the judge, either in the courtroom or in chambers, on a matter appearing on the court’s calendar for that day.

b) In-court time includes time spent in a court-ordered conference at court facilities in conjunction with an appearance, whether or not the judge is present.

Time spent waiting at court facilities as described above in (a) or (b) is compensable.

c) All other time expended in representing a child client, including time spent at court facilities for purposes other than an appearance before a judge, e.g., reviewing files, meeting with client, is out-of-court time.

2. Representation in Collateral Matters

a) An attorney for the child may be compensated for representation of a client in a legal or administrative matter collateral to the court proceeding for which the attorney for the child was assigned when:

i. The collateral matter arises from the same circumstances as the assigned court proceeding;

ii. Representation by the attorney for the child in the collateral matter is required to assure the most favorable outcome for the client in the assigned court proceeding.

3. Double-Billing Prohibited

Double-billing is the practice of rendering legal services on multiple cases in a given period, and then requesting payment for the entire period on the voucher for each case. For example, waiting at court one hour for two cases to be called, and then requesting payment for one hour for each case, would be double-billing.

4. Specificity of Work Performed

Please take care in preparing your voucher and specify, with particularity, the nature of the out-of-court work performed, the date, and time spent. A mere recitation of “open file”, “closed file” or “reviewed file” is not permitted. Additionally, “setting up a file” and “preparing a file for storage” is not permitted. The failure to be specific with individual time records may result in your voucher being returned to you.

5. Client Interview

In the event that you do not meet with your client you must submit an affirmation setting forth your reasons. The affirmation will be available online.

6. Time Records

Attorneys for Childrens are expected to maintain case files containing, among other things, contemporaneous time records for each of their clients separate from their bills. These records should include a daily log or diary which records how much time was spent working on that case that day, what work was performed and where the work was performed. Time records must minimally include the date and time of the activity, client's name, actual amount of time expended and a description of the work performed, i.e. 7 minutes, 13 minutes, 1 hour and 23 minutes). Descriptions should be sufficiently specific and detailed to enable one to understand the nature and extent of the services performed.

7. Expenses of Representation

The Attorneys for Children Program will pay reasonable expenses of representation, i.e., out-of-pocket expenses incurred by an attorney for the child on behalf of a client. Office overhead, however, will not be reimbursed. For example, expenses for in-office computer-assisted legal research (e.g. Westlaw and Lexis) are considered overhead and will not be reimbursed.

Time spent performing administrative duties, including secretarial tasks is not compensable.

Please note that voucher preparation time is not compensable.

Complete documentation, including all receipts and an itemization of all expenses is required in order to reimburse attorneys for any expenditures. Legible receipts in the form of a cancelled check, or other document that clearly indicates that the bill was paid, must be submitted with the attorneys' requests for payment.

The Attorneys for Children Program will pay the following reasonable expenses of representation including out-of-pocket expenses incurred on behalf of the client:

- copy of paid bill must be submitted

PHONE CHARGES:

D. Voucher Preparation

1. Submission of Voucher Required

a) To receive compensation for legal services to a client, you must have access to the Attorneys for Children Internet Voucher System (LGIV). In order to attain access you must obtain a user name and register your on-line account. If you do not have a user name, please call the Attorneys for Children Program Office at 718-923-6313.

b) An original Attorneys for Children online voucher, with the judge's signature, must be submitted for payment. A stamped signature is not acceptable. Please prepare two copies of the voucher, together with any supporting documentation; one copy for the trial court and one copy should be retained by the attorney for the child.

2. Time Period for Submission

a) The voucher is to be submitted at the completion of a matter and must be received by this office within 45 days of disposition. If a warrant is issued, and there is no return within 30 days, you should submit the voucher after the expiration of the 30 day period. In the event that you are submitting a voucher more than 45 days after disposition, you will be required to submit an affirmation stating that no prior claim has been made nor has payment been received for the services rendered and explaining the reason for the delay. In these instances, you will be prompted by the LGIV to prepare and complete an affirmation.

b) In the event unique or special circumstances exist that you believe may justify the submission of an interim voucher, you must obtain both the permission of the trial court and the Attorneys for Children Program Office.

c) At the conclusion of a permanency planning hearing, you should submit your voucher. These matters are viewed by the LGIV as cases not yet disposed of, i.e., interim vouchers. Accordingly, in order to submit these vouchers, you will be required to obtain permission from the Attorneys for Children Program Office.

d) Primary Day vouchers are to be submitted within 45 days of the date you appeared as Primary. In the event that you are submitting a voucher that is more than 45 days after the date you appeared as Primary, you will be required to submit an affirmation stating that no prior claim has been made nor has payment been received for the services rendered and explaining the reason for the delay. In these instances, you will be prompted by the LGIV to prepare and complete an affirmation.

3. Auditing of Vouchers

All vouchers are subject to audit before and after payment.

4. Supplemental Vouchers

With the prior approval of the judge presiding, a supplemental voucher may be filed when additional legal services are required.

5. Cases Transferred to IDV court

Cases that start in Family Court and are transferred to IDV court are regarded as separate proceedings, requiring preparation and submission of separate vouchers.

6. Status Inquiry

For panel members serving in the 9th and 10th Judicial Districts, if you wish to inquire as to the status of payment for a voucher which you believe is overdue, please check first with the trial court to ascertain if the voucher has been forwarded to this office.

7. Appeals

Please note that a trial court action and a subsequent appeal are regarded as separate proceedings, requiring preparation and submission of separate vouchers. For all appeal vouchers, you must include the order of assignment (if any), copies of all briefs and motion papers filed with the courts as well as copies of all court orders rendered in the case and receipts for expenses incurred. This office requires that you submit a duplicate copy of the original appeals voucher, and all of the supporting materials including the brief, attached to the original voucher. Additionally, an affirmation of extraordinary circumstances is required for any voucher requesting payment in excess of $4,400.00.

PLEASE NOTE: Instructions for the preparation and submission of your online vouchers can be found in the Attorneys for Children Internet Voucher Manual.

1. 22 NYCRR Part 680 Mental Health Professionals Panel

Effective July 1, 2008, pursuant to 22 NYCRR Part 680, the Mental Health Professionals Panel was established to assure that the court and parties have access to qualified mental health professionals. A court may appoint a mental health professional or professionals to evaluate adults and children in any case involving custody and visitation, delinquency, persons in need of supervision, child abuse and neglect, termination of parental rights, family offense, and adoption wherein compensation is paid privately or pursuant to Judiciary Law § 35 or County Law article 18-B (see 22 NYCRR § 680.5). Please review and familiarize yourself Part 680 (see Table of Contents, Chapter V - Administrative Policies and Procedures (b) (1).)

Please refer to the Mental Health Professionals Resource Directory as this handbook will be the list from which the court may appoint a mental health professional pursuant to 22 NYCRR § 680.5. The directory is available online at: <http://www.nycourts.gov/courts/ad2/relatedlinks.shtml>.

2. Procedures to be followed in Family Court

a. Upon obtaining permission from the trial court judge for the appointment of an expert interpreter, social worker, investigator, psychiatrist or psychologist and the assent of the expert, an order, pursuant to County Law § 722-c and Judiciary Law § 35, should be prepared by the attorneys for the child including the name and full address of the proposed expert, and submitted to the court. With the name and address of the expert on the order, this will enable us to provide the expert with the appropriate voucher. For a sample order, see Table of Contents, Chapter V - Administrative Policies and Procedures (b) (2).)

b. After the order is signed, a copy should be forwarded to this office. In Family Court cases, the order should be structured to fairly apportion the expense of the experts among the parties where they have the means, or between the County/City (County Law § 722-c) for the adult litigants in the case of indigents and the State (Judiciary Law § 35) only for the evaluation of the children.

c. Experts are to bill the State (for children) on a JC-2020 voucher.

d. Experts are to bill the County/City (for adults) on a 722-c voucher.

e. At the conclusion of the expert's role in the case, the expert or the attorney for the child should submit to the judge the completed expert voucher (JC-2020) for a signature and forward it to this office.

3. Procedures to be followed in Supreme Court

a. Upon obtaining permission from the trial court judge for the appointment of an expert interpreter, social worker, investigator, psychiatrist or psychologist and the assent of the expert, an order, pursuant to Judiciary Law § 35, should be prepared by the attorney including the name and full address of the proposed expert, and submitted to the court. For a sample order, see Table of Contents, Chapter V - Administrative Policies and Procedures (b) (4).

b. Experts are to bill the State (for both adults and children) on a JC-2020 voucher.

c. If the court determines that both parties are financially unable to pay for the cost of the expert services, it will order them at the expense of the State.

d. If the court determines that both parties have the financial means to pay for the cost of the expert services, the parties will pay for this expense and such services will not be a State charge. Only in situations where the court determines that one of the parties has the financial means to pay for cost of the expert services, should there be an apportionment between the party with the financial means and the State.

3. Compensation

The Chief Administrator of the Courts has adopted the following hourly rates as guidelines for payment of non-lawyer professionals under Judiciary Law § 35 and County Law § 722-c:

Psychiatrist	$250
Certified Psychologist	$150
Physician	$250
Certified Social Worker	$75
Licensed Investigator	$55

Before preparing the order, the attorney should consult with the expert to obtain the best possible estimate of the time necessary for the expert to perform the necessary service. This will enable the attorney to estimate the cost of the service. In the event that a greater expenditure of time is required than originally anticipated, the mental health professional may apply to the court for additional fees in excess of the sum set forth in the order (see 22 NYCRR § 680.6). The court should then issue a Supplemental Order. Only upon a written showing of “extraordinary circumstances” will compensation be awarded in excess of the statutory maximum ($300/$1000).

The Attorneys for Children Program is not authorized to pay for expert services to participants in a proceeding other than the client, or for services unrelated to the client's representation, such as treatment or counseling. The attorney for the child should not pay the experts directly.

If you have any questions regarding the guidelines and requirements as set forth above, please feel free to contact the Attorneys for Children Office.

§ 680.1 Access to Mental Health Professionals

In custody and visitation, delinquency, persons in need of supervision, child abuse and neglect, termination of parental rights, family offense, and adoption cases, an evaluation of the parties by a mental health professional is often necessary to assist the court in reaching an appropriate decision. Subject to the supervision of the Presiding Justices of the Appellate Division of the First and Second Judicial Departments, the mental health professionals certification committee shall establish procedures for (a) the appointment of applicants for membership on the panel of mental health professionals, (b) periodic evaluation of panel members, (c) training of panel members, (d) investigating complaints made against panel members, and (e) removal of mental health professionals from the panel.

§ 680.4 Establishment of Mental Health Professionals Panel

(a) Eligibility Requirements

A member of the mental health professionals panel shall:

- (4) maintain professional malpractice insurance; and
- (5) meet such additional requirements as shall be established by the mental health professionals certification committee with the approval of the Presiding Justices of the Appellate Divisions of the First and Second Judicial Departments.

(b) Application

Licensed social workers, psychologists, and psychiatrists may apply for membership on the mental health professionals panel for the First and Second Judicial Departments by completing a questionnaire in the form prescribed by the mental health professionals certification committee.

(c) Appointments to Panel

- (1) The mental health professionals committee shall review applications and identify those mental health professionals who meet the eligibility requirements.
- (2) The Presiding Justices of the Appellate Division in the First and Second Judicial Departments shall, by joint order, appoint the members of the mental health professionals panel from among those social workers, psychologists and psychiatrists recommended by the committee.
- (3) Appointments to the panel shall be for a term of three years. Panel members may be reappointed to successive terms. Any panel member may be removed prior to the expiration of his or her term by the joint order of the Presiding Justices of the Appellate Divisions of the First and Second Judicial Departments upon the recommendation of the committee

§ 680.5 Appointment of Mental Health Professionals From Panel

(a) Appointment

A court may appoint a mental health professional or professionals to evaluate adults and children in any case involving custody and visitation, delinquency, persons in need of supervision, child abuse and neglect, termination of parental rights, family offense, and adoption wherein compensation is paid privately or pursuant to Judiciary Law § 35 or County Law article 18-B. Such appointments shall be from the mental health professionals panel promulgated pursuant to these rules. A court, upon a finding of good cause, may appoint a mental health professional who is not a member of the mental health professionals panel. The court's finding shall be set forth in the order of appointment. This section shall not apply to providers of mental health services pursuant to a governmental contract.

(b) Order of Appointment

The court appointing a mental health professional shall issue a written order setting forth the terms and conditions of the appointment including the method and rate of compensation and by whom such compensation is to be paid. A copy of the order shall be provided to the mental health professional and to every party to the case, including the attorney, if any, for each child.

§ 680.6 Compensation of Mental Health Professionals

(a) The compensation for mental health professionals appointed pursuant to Judiciary Law § 35 or County Law § 722-c shall be set in accordance with guidelines promulgated by the Chief Administrator of the Courts. Applications for payment for services rendered pursuant to those sections shall be submitted for approval to the court that appointed the panel member on forms authorized by the Chief Administrator of the Courts or by the appropriate local fiscal authority.

(b) The compensation of mental health professionals appointed in cases in which their fees shall be borne in whole or in part by the parties shall be at rates fixed by the court in accordance with the charge for such services prevailing in the community and the financial circumstances of the parties. Such compensation shall not exceed a sum certain to be set forth in the order of appointment, which sum shall be based on the selected rate and the estimated number of hours required to perform the necessary services, except that if, in the judgment of the mental health professional, the number of hours required to perform the necessary services is likely to exceed the number set forth in the order of appointment, he or she may make application to the court to amend that order by increasing the number of hours accordingly. The application shall be made by letter, a copy of which shall be forwarded to the party or parties responsible for the payment of the fee.

§ 680.7 Training and Education

The mental health professionals certification committee shall establish a training and education program for members of the mental health professionals panel. The program may be established in cooperation with relevant professional organizations. The committee may make attendance at training sessions a requirement for continued membership on the panel of mental health professionals.

§ 680.8 Periodic Evaluation of Panel Members

The mental health professionals certification committee shall establish procedures by which it shall periodically evaluate the work performed by each member of the panel of mental health professionals. In conducting its evaluation the committee shall seek information from judges and other appropriate and knowledgeable persons. The committee shall not recommend for reappointment to the panel any member whose performance has been determined to be unsatisfactory.

§ 680.9 Removal

The Presiding Justices of the Appellate Division of the First and Second Judicial Departments may, by joint order, remove members of the mental health professionals panel. The mental health professionals certification committee may, at any time, recommend to the Presiding Justices that a mental health professional be removed from the panel.

§ 680.10 Annual Report of the Mental Health Professionals Certification Committee

On June 1st of each year the mental health professionals certification committee shall submit to the Presiding Justices of the Appellate Division in the First and Second Judicial Departments an annual report containing an evaluation of the operation of the mental health professionals panel and the training program and any recommendations concerning measures that should be adopted to improve the performance of the panel and the training program. A copy of that report shall be forwarded to the Chief Administrator of the Courts.

OBTAINING TRIAL TRANSCRIPTS

To obtain transcripts for use in representing a client in a trial court or on appeal, counsel must obtain a Minute Order Form from the office of the Chief Clerk of your local Family Court, and then take the following steps:

1. The attorney for the child must complete the top portion of the Minute Order Form and present the form to the Family Court for the judge's authorization.
2. The Family Court will then retain a copy of the form and return the remaining copies to the attorney for the child for transmittal to the court reporter.
3. Upon receiving the form with the judge's endorsement, the court reporter will prepare two certified copies of the transcript, file one copy with the Family Court Clerk, and deliver the other copy to the attorney for the child.
4. When the transcript is delivered, the attorney for the child will endorse the appropriate portion of the form.
5. The reporter will retain a copy of the form and forward the remaining copies, together with a completed New York State Standard Voucher (AC92), to the Attorneys for Children Program office for review and payment. Copies of the Standard Voucher are available from the office of the Chief Clerk of your local Family Court.

The expense involved in ordering transcripts from court reporters is a state expense unless the court has determined that the parties, most particularly the parents, are responsible for the cost.

Utilization of these forms will make it unnecessary for counsel to incur out-of-pocket expenses when ordering transcripts.

A copy of the Attorney for the Child Minute Order Form and the New York State Standard Vouchers will be found in the Forms section of this Handbook.

OBTAINING MECHANICALLY RECORDED TRANSCRIPTS

To request a transcript of a mechanically recorded proceeding, the attorney for the child must complete a Transcript Request Form and a Standard Voucher.

Completed forms are to be submitted to the Part Clerk with the Order for Approval of Transcript of Record.

Part Clerks will then attach the Transcript Request Form, Voucher and Order and deliver them to the appropriate clerks office.

A copy of the Transcript Request Form, the Voucher for Court Reporter Services and the Order for Approval of Transcript of Record will be found in the Attorneys for Children Forms section of this Handbook.

REIMBURSEMENT FOR TRANSCRIPT COSTS IN SUPREME COURT CASES ASSIGNMENTS PURSUANT TO JUDICIARY LAW § 35 (8)

In order to be reimbursed for transcript costs you must provide complete documentation, including a receipt and itemization of these expenses. The transcription cost should be indicated on the Judiciary Law 35 (8) voucher under III. Expense of Representation. Legible receipts in the form of a cancelled check, or other document that clearly indicates that the bill was paid, must be submitted together with the 35 (8) voucher. Please note that the cost of transcriptions services is reimbursable up to $2.50 per page pursuant to OCA guidelines.

RECERTIFICATION PROCEDURE

The Panel for each county is recertified on a yearly basis. The attorney for the child designation remains in effect for only one year [22 NYCRR § 679.(7)]. As part of an annual evaluative procedure, prior to recertification, the Attorney for the Child Advisory Committee for each Judicial District shall make inquiries as to the performance of each panel member within that Judicial District. The committees will concern themselves with each attorney's knowledge of the law, legal judgment, preparation of cases, strength of advocacy, punctuality and candor with the court, as well as courtesy to litigants and counsel. The Committee will decide on an annual basis the attorneys it recommends to the Presiding Justice of the Appellate Division, Second Department, for recertification [22NYCRR 679.(8)].

At the end of each summer, a letter and recertification application will be sent to each panel member inquiring whether he/she wishes to continue on the panel for the upcoming year. A copy of the letter and recertification application will be found in the Forms section of this Handbook.

SUPREME COURT, APPELLATE DIVISION, ALL DEPARTMENTS Mandatory Continuing Legal Education Program for Attorneys in the State of New York

Part 1500

SUBPART B. MANDATORY CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION FOR NEWLY ADMITTED ATTORNEYS

1500.10 Application

(a) The requirements of this Subpart shall apply to all newly admitted attorneys, who are not exempt from these requirements pursuant to § 1500.5(b), during the first two years after their admission to the Bar of the State of New York.

(b) A newly admitted attorney is an attorney who has successfully passed the New York State Bar examination administered by the State Board of Law Examiners and who becomes duly admitted to the practice of law in New York after October 1, 1997.

(c) Attorneys who have been engaged in the practice of law in another state, the District of Columbia, any territory of the United States or any foreign jurisdiction, for the five (5) years immediately preceding admission to the New York Bar, shall not be deemed newly admitted attorneys for the purposes of this Subpart, and shall be required to comply with the requirements of Subpart C to the extent they are applicable.

1500.11 Statement of Purpose

Mandatory Continuing Legal Education for Newly Admitted Attorneys in the State of New York is a transitional continuing legal education program designed to help recent graduates and newly admitted attorneys become competent to deliver legal services at an acceptable level of quality as they enter practice and assume primary client service responsibilities. The Program seeks to help the newly admitted attorney establish a foundation in certain practical skills, techniques and procedures, which are and can be essential to the practice of law, but may not have been adequately addressed in law school. It includes courses targeting ethics and professionalism, skills, practice management and areas of professional practice.

1500.12 Minimum Requirements

(a) Credit Hours. Each newly admitted attorney shall complete a minimum of 32 credit hours of accredited transitional education within the first two (2) years of the date of admission to the Bar. Sixteen (16) accredited hours shall be completed in each of the first two (2) years of admission to the Bar as follows:

-Three (3) hours of ethics and professionalism;

-Six (6) hours of skills; and

-Seven (7) hours of practice management and areas of professional practice.

Ethics and professionalism, skills, law practice management and areas of professional practice are defined in § 1500.2. The ethics and professionalism and skills components may be intertwined with other courses.

(b) Carry-Over Credit. Except as provided in section 1500.13(b)(2), a newly admitted attorney who accumulates more than the 16 hours of credit required in the first year of admission to the Bar may carry over to the second year of admission to the Bar a maximum of eight (8) credits. Six (6) credits in excess of the 16-hour requirement in the second year of admission to the Bar may be carried over to the following biennial reporting cycle to fulfill the requirements of Subpart C. Ethics and professionalism credit may not be carried over.

(c) Accredited Courses or Programs Only. Transitional continuing legal education credit will be granted only for courses and programs approved as such by the CLE Board, except as provided in subdivision (d). No transitional continuing legal education course or program consisting of nontraditional formats, such as self-study, correspondence work, videotapes, audiotapes, motion picture presentations or on-line programs may be accepted for credit without prior permission from the CLE Board, except as provided in the Regulations and Guidelines.

(d) Other Jurisdictions. Transitional continuing legal education courses approved by another state, the District of Columbia, any territory of the United States or any foreign jurisdiction with requirements meeting the standards adopted by the CLE Board shall count toward the newly admitted attorney's compliance with New York's transitional CLE Program requirements in accordance with the Regulations and Guidelines established by the CLE Board and this Part.

(e) Post-Graduation/Pre-Admission. A maximum of 16 credit hours of approved transitional CLE courses taken from the date of graduation from law school up through the date of admission to the New York Bar may be applied toward a newly admitted attorney's first-year CLE Program requirements. Credit hours in excess of 16 may not be carried over and applied toward the second-year CLE requirement.

(f) Obligations of Attorneys exempt from the Program Requirements.

(1) An attorney who is exempt from the requirements of this Program and who is required to comply with the continuing legal education requirements of another jurisdiction shall comply with those requirements and shall certify to this compliance on the attorney's biennial attorney registration statement.

(2) An attorney who is exempt from the requirements of this Program and who is not required to comply with the continuing legal education requirements of another jurisdiction shall so certify on the attorney's biennial attorney registration statement.

(3) An attorney who is exempt from the requirements of this Program and who thereafter ceases to be exempt and commences the practice of law in New York during the first two years after admission to the Bar shall be required to complete by the end of those two years 1.5 credit hours of accredited continuing legal education as set forth in section 1500.12(a), in any combination of categories set forth in said section, for each full month of the two-year period during which the attorney practices law in New York.

(4) An Attorney who permanently ceases to practice law in New York while commencing or continuing the practice of law in another jurisdiction shall be exempt from the requirements of this Program for the year in which the permanent cessation from New York practice occurred, and shall comply with the requirements of any jurisdiction in which the attorney practices law during that year.

1500.13 Reporting Requirements

(a) Attorney Obligations. Each newly admitted attorney subject to New York's transitional continuing legal education requirements shall retain the Certificate of Attendance for each approved transitional education course or program for at least four (4) years from the date of the course or program.

(b) Certification.

(1) Except as otherwise authorized by this Part, each newly admitted attorney subject to New York's transitional continuing legal education requirements is required to certify along with the submission of his or her biennial attorney registration statement that the attorney has satisfactorily completed 32 credit hours of transitional continuing legal education (16 credit hours in the first year of admission to the Bar, 16 credit hours in the second year of admission to the Bar) and that the attorney has retained the Certificates of Attendance or other documentation required by the CLE Board for the accredited courses or programs.

(2) A newly admitted attorney who is required to file his or her biennial attorney registration statement prior to completing the second year of admission to the Bar shall certify the actual number of credit hours of transitional continuing legal education completed at the time the statement is filed. The attorney shall remain responsible for completing the 16 second-year credit hours of transitional continuing legal education by the end of that second year after admission, but may apply 12 of the 16 credit hours to fulfilling the requirements of Subpart C as set forth in § 1500.22(b)(3).

1500.14 Waivers or Modifications

(a) A newly admitted attorney may apply in writing to the CLE Board for a waiver or modification of Program requirements based upon extenuating circumstances preventing the newly admitted attorney from complying with the requirements, in accordance with the Regulations and Guidelines established by the CLE Board and this Part.

(b) Requests for extensions of time in which to complete Program requirements based upon extenuating circumstances shall be made pursuant to the procedures contained in the Regulations and Guidelines and shall not be granted for a period of greater than 90 days absent special circumstances. If an extension is granted, the period of time by which a newly admitted attorney must complete the mandatory continuing legal education requirements applicable to all attorneys as set forth in Subpart C remains the same.

1500.15 Noncompliance

The names of newly admitted attorneys who fail to comply with transitional continuing legal education requirements will be submitted to the Appellate Division for appropriate action.

AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF VOUCHER FOR COMPENSATION OF MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES IN EXCESS OF STATUTORY MAXIMUM
[PURSUANT TO § 127.2]

-----x

State of New York)
County of _____)ss.:

I, _____, being first duly sworn, depose and say that:

1. This statement is being made pursuant to the Rules of the Chief Administrator § 127.2 Compensation of Counsel and Other Providers in Extraordinary Circumstances, in support of my request for compensation in excess of the statutory maximum permitted by § 35 of the Judiciary Law / § 722-c of the County Law.
2. Extraordinary circumstances exist because the case was complicated and demanding. Many hours of professional work by this clinician were required in order to answer the various questions posed by the Court to facilitate disposition of this matter.
3. The accompanying voucher details the time and effort expended in evaluating the litigants. This matter was referred for a comprehensive [psychiatric/psychological work-up/evaluation] [observation and evaluation/assessment by a social worker], as a result of the perception of complex problems involved. The issues the Court directed be addressed necessitated lengthy clinical interviews, mental status examinations, psychiatric/psychological testing, document reviews and the preparation of a comprehensive written report. Given the extraordinary nature of this matter, the professional services required necessitates my request for payment in excess of the statutory maximum.

4. The following sets forth the facts unique to this case which justify payment in excess of the statutory maximum:

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully requested that the court grant this application.

ATTORNEYS FOR CHILDREN PROGRAM

COUNTY LAW

ARTICLE 18-B

§ 722. Plan for Representation

The governing body of each county and the governing body of the city in which a county is wholly contained shall place in operation throughout the county a plan for providing counsel to persons charged with a crime or who are entitled to counsel pursuant to section two hundred sixty-two or section eleven hundred twenty of the family court act, article six-C of the correction law or section four hundred seven of the surrogate's court procedure act, who are financially unable to obtain counsel. Each plan shall also provide for investigative, expert and other services necessary for an adequate defense. The plan shall conform to one of the following:

1. Representation by a public defender appointed pursuant to county law article eighteen-A.
2. In criminal proceedings, representation by counsel furnished by a private legal aid bureau or society designated by the county or city, organized and operating to give legal assistance and representation to persons charged with a crime within the city or county who are financially unable to obtain counsel. In proceedings under the family court act, representation by a private legal aid bureau or society, or by any corporation, voluntary association, or organization permitted to practice law under the authority of subdivision five of section four hundred ninety-five of the judiciary law.
3. Representation by counsel furnished pursuant to a plan of a bar association in each county or the city in which a county is wholly contained whereby the services of private counsel are rotated and coordinated by an administrator, and such administrator may be compensated for such service. Any plan of a bar association must receive the approval of the state administrator before the plan is placed in operation. In the county of Hamilton, such representation may be by counsel furnished by the Fulton county bar association pursuant to a plan of the Fulton county bar association.
4. Representation according to a plan containing a combination of any of the foregoing. Any judge, justice or magistrate in assigning counsel pursuant to sections 170.10, 180.10, 210.15 and 720.30 of the criminal procedure law, or in assigning counsel to a defendant when a hearing has been ordered in a proceeding upon a motion, pursuant to article four hundred forty of the criminal procedure law, to vacate a judgment or to set aside a sentence or on a motion for a writ of error coram nobis, or in assigning counsel pursuant to the provisions of section two hundred sixty-two of the family court act or section four hundred seven of the surrogate's court procedure act, shall assign counsel furnished in accordance with a plan conforming to the requirements of this section; provided, however, that when the county or the city in which a county is wholly contained has not placed in operation a plan conforming to that prescribed in this subdivision or subdivision three of this section and the judge, justice or magistrate is satisfied that a conflict of interest prevents the assignment of counsel pursuant to the plan in operation, or when the county or the city in which a county is wholly contained has not placed in operation any plan conforming to that prescribed in this section, the judge, justice or magistrate may assign any attorney in such county or city and, in such event, such attorney shall receive compensation and reimbursement from such county or city which shall be at the same rate as is prescribed in section seven hundred twenty-two-b of this article.
5. In classification proceedings under article six-C of the correction law or from an appeal thereof, representation shall be according to a plan described in subdivisions one, two, three or four of this section. If such plan includes representation by a private legal aid bureau or society, such private legal aid bureau or society shall have been designated to give legal assistance and representation to persons charged with a crime. Upon an appeal in a criminal action, and on any appeal described in section eleven hundred twenty of the family court act, article six-C of the correction law or section four hundred seven of the surrogate's court procedure act, wherein the party is financially unable to obtain counsel, the appellate court shall assign counsel furnished in accordance with the plan, conforming to the requirements of this section, which is in operation in the county or in the city in which a county is wholly contained wherein the judgment of conviction, disposition, or order of the trial court was entered; provided, however, that when such county or city has not placed in operation a plan conforming to that prescribed in subdivision three or four of this section and such appellate court is satisfied that a conflict of interest prevents the assignment of counsel pursuant to the plan in operation, or when such county or city has not placed in operation any plan conforming to that prescribed in this section, such appellate court may assign any attorney in such county or city and, in such event, such attorney shall receive compensation and reimbursement from such county or city which shall be at the same rate as is prescribed in section seven hundred twenty-two-b of this chapter.

§ 722-b. Compensation and Reimbursement for Representation

1. All counsel assigned in accordance with a plan of a bar association conforming to the requirements of section seven hundred twenty-two of this article whereby the services of private counsel are rotated and coordinated by an administrator shall at the conclusion of the representation receive:

2. Except as provided in this section, compensation for time expended in providing representation:

(a) pursuant to paragraph (a) of subdivision one of this section shall not exceed two thousand four hundred dollars; and

(b) pursuant to paragraph (b) of subdivision one of this section shall not exceed four thousand four hundred dollars.

For representation on an appeal, compensation and reimbursement shall be fixed by the appellate court. For all other representation, compensation and reimbursement shall be fixed by the trial court judge. In extraordinary circumstances a trial or appellate court may provide for compensation in excess of the foregoing limits and for payment of compensation and reimbursement for expenses before the completion of the representation.

4.

Each claim for compensation and reimbursement shall be supported by a sworn statement specifying the time expended, services rendered, expenses incurred and reimbursement or compensation applied for or received in the same case from any other source. No counsel assigned hereunder shall seek or accept any fee for representing the party for whom he or she is assigned without approval of the court as herein provided.

§ 722-c. Services Other Than Counsel

Upon a finding in an ex parte proceeding that investigative, expert or other services are necessary and that the defendant or other person described in section two hundred forty-nine or section two hundred sixty-two of the family court act, article six-C of the correction law or section four hundred seven of the surrogate's court procedure act, is financially unable to obtain them, the court shall authorize counsel, whether or not assigned in accordance with a plan, to obtain the services on behalf of the defendant or such other person. The court upon a finding that timely procurement of necessary services could not await prior authorization may authorize the services nunc pro tunc. The court shall determine reasonable compensation for the services and direct payment to the person who rendered them or to the person entitled to reimbursement. Only in extraordinary circumstances may the court provide for compensation in excess of one thousand dollars per investigative, expert or other service provider.

Each claim for compensation shall be supported by a sworn statement specifying the time expended, services rendered, expenses incurred and reimbursement or compensation applied for or received in the same case from any other source.

§ 722-d. Duration of Assignment

Whenever it appears that the defendant is financially able to obtain counsel or to make partial payment for the representation or other services, counsel may report this fact to the court and the court may terminate the assignment of counsel or authorize payment, as the interests of justice may dictate, to the public defender, private legal aid bureau or society, private attorney, or otherwise.

§ 722-e. Expenses

All expenses for providing counsel and services other than counsel hereunder shall be a county charge or in the case of a county wholly located within a city a city charge to be paid out of an appropriation for such purposes.

FAMILY COURT ACT

§ 261. Legislative Findings and Purpose

Persons involved in certain family court proceedings may face the infringements of fundamental interests and rights, including the loss of a child's society and the possibility of criminal charges, and therefore have a constitutional right to counsel in such proceedings. Counsel is often indispensable to a practical realization of due process of law and may be helpful to the court in making reasoned determinations of fact and proper orders of disposition. The purpose of this part is to provide a means for implementing the right to assigned counsel for indigent persons in proceedings under this act.

§ 262. Assignment of Counsel for Indigent Persons

Each of the persons described below in this subdivision has the right to the assistance of counsel. When such person first appears in court, the judge shall advise such person before proceeding that he has the right to be represented by counsel of his own choosing, of his right to have an adjournment to confer with counsel, and of his right to have counsel assigned by the court in any case where he is financially unable to obtain the same:

(i)

the respondent in any proceeding under article ten of this act and the petitioner in any proceeding under part eight of article ten of this act;

(ii)

the petitioner and the respondent in any proceeding under article eight of this act;

(iii)

the respondent in any proceeding under part three of article six of this act;

(iv)

the parent, foster parent, or other person having physical or legal custody of the child in any proceeding under section three hundred fifty-eight-a, three hundred eighty-four, three hundred eighty-four-b, or three hundred ninety-two of the social services law, and a non-custodial parent or grandparent served with notice pursuant to paragraph (e) of subdivision two of section three hundred eighty-four-a of the social services law;

the parent of any child seeking custody or contesting the substantial infringement of his or her right to custody of such child, in any proceeding before the court in which the court has jurisdiction to determine such custody; any person in any proceeding before the court in which an order or other determination is being sought to hold such person in contempt of the court or in willful violation of a previous order of the court, except for a contempt which may be punished summarily under section seven hundred fifty-five of the judiciary law;

(vi)

(vii)

the parent of a child in any adoption proceeding who opposes the adoption of such child.

(viii)

the respondent in any proceeding under article five of this act in relation to the establishment of paternity.

(b)

Assignment of counsel in other cases. In addition to the cases listed in subdivision (a) of this section, a judge may assign counsel to represent any adult in a proceeding under this act if he determines that such assignment of counsel is mandated by the constitution of the state of New York or of the United States, and includes such determination in the order assigning counsel;

(c)

Implementation. Any order for the assignment of counsel issued under this part shall be implemented as provided in article eighteen-B of the county law.

§1118. Applicability of Civil Practice Law and Rules

The provisions of the civil practice law and rules apply where appropriate to appeals under this article, provided, however, that the fee required by section eight thousand twenty-two of the civil practice law and rules shall not be required where the appellant or attorney certifies that the appellant has been assigned counsel pursuant to section two hundred forty-nine, two hundred sixty-two or eleven hundred twenty of this act or section seven hundred twenty-two of the county law, or is represented by a legal aid society or a federally-funded legal services program for indigents.

671.10. Duties of Assigned Counsel in the Surrogate's Court and the Family Court

(a) Upon the entry of an order in the Surrogate's Court and Family Court from which an appeal may be taken, it shall be the duty of assigned counsel for the unsuccessful party, immediately after the entry of the order, to give either by mail or personally, written notice to the client advising of the right to appeal or to make application for permission to appeal, and request written instructions as to whether he or she desires to take an appeal or to make such application. Thereafter, if the client gives to counsel timely written notice of his or her desire to appeal or to make such application, counsel shall promptly serve and file the necessary formal notice of appeal, or make application to this court for permission to appeal. Unless counsel shall have been retained to prosecute the appeal, the notice of appeal may contain the additional statement that it is being served and filed on appellant's behalf pursuant to this rule and that it shall not be deemed to be counsel's appearance as appellant's attorney on the appeal.

(b) In counsel's written notice to the client advising of the right to appeal or to make application for permission to appeal, counsel shall also set forth:

- (4) in such notice counsel shall also request the written instructions of his client, and if the client thereafter gives counsel timely written notice of his or her desire to make application for permission to appeal or to apply for the relief provided in paragraph (3) of this section, or to make any one or all of these applications, counsel shall proceed promptly to do so.

(c) Counsel shall also advise the client that in those cases where permission to appeal is required, applications for the foregoing relief will be considered only if such permission is granted.

(d) If the assigned counsel represented the successful party in the court in which the order being appealed was entered, such assignment shall remain in effect and counsel shall continue to represent the successful party as the respondent on the appeal until entry of the order determining the appeal and until counsel shall have performed any additional applicable duties imposed upon him or her by these rules, or until counsel shall have been otherwise relieved of his assignment.

NOTE- If either the fact-finding or disposition were subsequent to a hearing, the client must be notified of the right to appeal, as stated above. If, however, the finding or disposition was upon inquest, it is not appropriate to file a Notice of Appeal. Notification to your client as to the court action taken and the right to move to vacate the default is required. In each case a copy of the written communication to the client must be attached to your voucher.

ASSIGNED COUNSEL PLAN OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK
253 Broadway, 8th Floor
New York, New York 10007
First and Second Judicial Departments

FAMILY COURT PAYMENT POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

I. Introduction

The Assigned Counsel Plan for the City of New York (ACP) is a bifurcated office that implements the mandate of Article 18-B of the County Law to assign attorneys within the five boroughs of the City of New York to represent indigent parties in Criminal and Supreme Court proceedings, as well as compensate attorneys and experts in criminal and family courts for their service on behalf of the indigent adult defendants and litigants.

The assignment and payment functions required by the statute are implemented by the assignment and payment divisions within the ACP. The assignment division is headed by two Administrators of the First and Second Departments who prepare the attorney panels and expert roster and are responsible for attorney case assignments and the resolution of issues concerning quality of representation.

The Director of the ACP oversees the payment division, develops uniform payment policies, investigates and resolves fiscal issues and coordinates city-wide policy with the two ACP Administrators.

II. The Family Court Panel

Members of the Family Court Panel are required to serve as both Law Guardians and ACP Family Court attorneys, receiving assignments to represent juveniles as well as adults in Family Court proceedings. Article 18-B is also the implementing statute that requires ACP to compensate Family Court Panel attorneys and related expert and/or other ancillary services provided on behalf of indigent adult litigants.

A. Appointment to the Assigned Counsel Family Court Panel

The Attorneys for Children Programs of the Appellate Division's First and Second Judicial Departments oversee the administration of policies and procedures for assignments in Family Court. Information concerning assignments should be sought at the respective Attorneys for Children Program.

B. Panel Membership.

An attorney must be a member of the Assigned Counsel Family Court Panel to be compensated for services by the ACP.

The following are ACP vouchers used in Family Court proceedings. Their applications are discussed under each of the categories of Intake, Case, Expert and Appeal to follow:

1. ACP Family Court Intake Voucher Citywide
2. Voucher for Compensation of Appointed Counsel under Article 18-B – Family Court (with Case Worksheet)
3. ACP 722-c Services – Expert Voucher – Family Court
4. Request for Compensation and Expenses of Appointed Counsel under Article 18-B of the County Law (Second Judicial Department)

Some of these vouchers are available for download on ACP's website, under the Family Court tab in 18-B Web at www.nyc.gov/18B . The forms are found under the Family Court tab.

C. Primary Day (Intake) Shifts

The costs associated with primary day shifts are apportioned between ACP and the Attorneys for Children Program. ACP is responsible for payments associated with adult petitioners and the State, through its Attorneys for Children Program, is responsible for payments associated with juvenile representation.

At the conclusion of each intake shift, the assigned attorney must complete and sign two separate vouchers: one voucher for cases involving juveniles (JC200) and a second voucher for services rendered to adults - ACP Family Court Intake Voucher Citywide). The information previously requested concerning case detail appearing on the back of the voucher is no longer a requirement of submission.

Once the part goes down for the day, counsel should submit both forms to the Intake Judge for signature. Vouchers received by ACP must be original and signed by the presiding judge in blue ink. Both vouchers must be submitted directly to the Attorneys for Children Program, which is responsible for ensuring the appropriate apportionment of vouchers between juveniles and adults before mailing the ACP vouchers to the city for processing and payment.

D. Family Court Cases

At the conclusion of a case, the assigned attorney must submit an online voucher at: www.nyc.gov/18B The Family Training Manual can be downloaded.

E. Time Period for Submission – the 45-day Rule

At the conclusion of a family court matter, the assigned attorney must submit the case voucher online to ACP within forty-five (45) days of the case disposition. Vouchers submitted to ACP later than forty-five days following the disposition of the case may be accompanied by an online affirmation (Delay of Lateness) stating the extraordinary circumstances responsible for the delay of submission and that no claim for payment on the matter was previously made nor was payment received.

F. Interim Vouchers

The voucher is to be submitted at the completion of a matter. Should circumstances exist that the attorney believes may justify the submission of an interim voucher, the attorney must obtain the permission of the trial court.

G. Appeals

At the conclusion of the appeal, the appeals voucher (Request for Compensation and Expenses of Appointed Counsel under Article 18-B of the County Law (Second Judicial Department) should be submitted for approval directly to the Attorneys for Children Program Office located at 335 Adams Street, Ste. 2400, Brooklyn, New York, 11201. Attachments to the voucher must include a copy of your brief together with relevant documentation including any motion papers that were prepared.

H. Attorney Compensation Rates

ACP representation in Family Court and appellate court proceedings is compensated at the rate of $75 per hour. This rate applies to both in-court and out-of-court services.

I. Preparation of Online Vouchers for Attorneys

The nature of any in-court and out-of-court work performed must be specified with particularity on the online voucher worksheet.

Online Vouchers are submitted along with worksheet and affirmation if any. Failure to be specific on the worksheet may result in the return of the voucher by ACP or the reduction of the voucher by the trial or appellate courts.

Attorneys may bill only for services performed by them (i.e. services performed by paralegals, secretaries or other support staff should not be included in attorney or expert billings.)

1. Billing Increments for Attorneys:

Services are to be billed by the actual minutes/hours expended to perform the service. Billing is not to be billed as increments of tenths of hours.

2. Billing Prohibitions:

i. Double billing. Using a time period to bill for more than one matter. An example of double billing is to bill for an intake shift and to bill for the same time period on a case voucher.

ii. Duplicate billing. Two examples – billing the same time segment as previously billed for the same client date and time of service.

iii. Worksheet errors. Attorneys must indicate specific times that their service activities occur, not a blanket range, i.e. 9:00 as start time and 5:00 as Finish time with indication of 2 hours in-court work. Vouchers that do not give exact times of service will be returned to the submitting party.

J. Total Case Billing

The statutory maximum for billing in a single case is $4,400. When making a request for compensation in excess of the statutory maximum, an affirmation of “extraordinary circumstances” must be submitted with the voucher. The affirmation must set forth the specific circumstances that justify the excessive compensation. Examples of justification include:

1. Complex factual or legal issues
2. Novel issues of law requiring extensive legal research
3. Lengthy trials or other in-court proceedings

K. Reimbursement of Expenses

Complete documentation, including all receipts and expense itemization, is required in order to reimburse attorneys for expenditures reasonably incurred. The following are acceptable forms of receipts:

- Copies of canceled checks (front and back)
- Vendor bills sent with bank statement indicating that a check was negotiated by the vendor
- Legible payment receipts with vendor acknowledgement of full payment

1. Permissible expenses include:

- ~Long distance telephone and fax charges
- ~Photocopying: there is a $.15 cents per page limit, and the number of copies must be indicated.
- ~Postage: Federal Express, Certified Mail, and other similar methods may be considered for reimbursement. (No regular postage stamps)
- ~Witness fees and process service may be considered for payment
- ~Metrocards representing one-way fares provided to respondents

2. Non-compensable billing:

- ~Administrative tasks or office overhead

- ~Voucher preparation
- ~Preparation of time records
- ~Preparing envelopes or labels
- ~Preparing packages for mailing

L. Maintenance of Time Records

Attorneys are expected to maintain case files containing contemporaneous time records for each client, separate from his or her vouchers. These records should include a daily log or diary that must minimally include the client's name, the date of the activity, the amount of time expended, and a description of the work performed. Descriptions should be sufficiently detailed to inform of the nature and extent of the services performed. Specific times must be indicated for each activity noted.

III. Expert Services

Attorneys requiring the services of an expert, other than court reporter services, must obtain a court order ex-parte describing with specificity, the rate of the expert (the Chief Administrator of the Courts adopts rate guidelines for non-lawyer professionals, pursuant to County Law §722-c). The Court Order must also describe in detail the services to be performed by the expert as well as limit the cost of the expert services. Should the cost exceed the amount on the original Order, the attorney must secure a Supplemental Order from the Court.

Should the compensation requested exceed the statutory maximum of $1,000.00, the attorney must submit an affirmation of "extraordinary circumstances" to the Court.

A. Approved Experts from ACP and the Appellate Division

The Appellate Division's First and Second Judicial Departments and the ACP maintain separate lists of experts available for use by attorneys and judges for 18-B service.

B. The Appellate Divisions' list of approved Forensic Mental Health Professionals

The First and Second Judicial Departments maintain a list of approved mental health professionals in the Mental Health Professionals Panel Directory.

C. ACP Expert Roster

The ACP maintains a list of experts approved to provide services. In order to be compensated for services, experts are vetted for the ACP's approved Expert Roster ("the Roster"). An expert whose name does not appear on the Roster may also be appointed, but to be eligible for payment (s)he must complete the expert application process and be approved for the Roster.

Instructions for applying to the Roster are as follows:

- i. Experts must apply to be included on the Roster using the ACP Expert Roster Application and must submit all required documentation outlined therein. Applicants are subject to verification of credentials, including but not limited to:
- ii. Verification of license or certification in the field of expertise, if applicable
- iii. Training appropriate to perform the services outlined in the court order.

D. One-Time Experts

Experts who expect to render 18-B services one time only, may complete an abbreviated application process. These experts are required to submit the following documents to be eligible:

- iv. Curriculum Vitae
- v. City of New York Substitute W-9 form
- vi. A government-issued identification form
- vii. Licensure, if applicable

Applicants are subject to verification of credentials, including but not limited to:

- viii. Verification of license or certification in the field of expertise, if applicable.
- li. Training appropriate to perform the services outlined in the court order.

Experts who apply as one-time experts but subsequently wish to be compensated for a second or subsequent case must complete the full application process for inclusion on the Expert Roster.

ACP's Expert Roster is available for review on 18-B Web at www.nyc.gov/18B . Please note that the Web list includes only those experts who have been vetted for the Roster. Inquiries may be made to the Background Review Manager concerning expertise not currently reflected on the Roster but maintained by ACP pending vetting.

E. Billing Increments for Experts

Services are to be billed by the actual minutes/hours expended to perform the service. Billing may not be made in tenths of hours.

F. Enhanced Rate Requests

The Chief Administrator of the Courts sets hourly rates for payment of non-lawyer professionals under Judiciary Law Section 35 and County Law Section 722-c. Experts seeking enhanced rates must specify that enhanced rate on the Order. Once received by ACP, the voucher is forwarded to the Administrative Judge for approval of the enhanced rate.

G. Pre-approval of ancillary expenses over $500

Whenever an expert expects expenses of representation to exceed $500.00, (s)he must first obtain the approval of the Director of the Assigned Counsel Plan.

To obtain pre-approval of the expenses in excess of $500, a written request must be submitted with an itemized list of expenses the expert expects to incur, and a justification for the reason the additional expense beyond $500.00 is necessary.

H. Non-local Experts

In the event that the required expertise is not available locally and the attorney plans to retain an expert from outside the tri-state area (where significant travel expenses are expected), the attorney must

- i. seek the prior approval of the Director of the ACP.
- ii. alert the non-local expert of guidelines for expert compensation.
- iii. upon approval of the non-local expert by the Director and the Background Review Manager, the expert will proceed through the normal payment process.

I. Submitting Expert Vouchers for Payment

After the expert finishes their services on a case, he (she) must complete the ACP 722-c Services Expert Voucher – Family Court and attach the completed voucher worksheet and the order of assignment. The order of assignment must indicate whether and to what extent the expert is to provide services to adults and juveniles.

Finally, the voucher, the worksheet and order of assignment are provided by the requesting attorney to the last judge assigned to the case, along with a self-addressed, stamped envelope to the Assigned Counsel Plan, 253 Broadway, 8th Floor, New York, New York 10007. Upon review and execution by the judge, the voucher is forwarded to ACP for payment.

Any voucher for expert services in excess of the statutory $1,000 must be accompanied by an affidavit describing the "extraordinary circumstances" that require the excess expenditure.

J. 18-B Web – ACP’s Assignment and Payment System

All experts serving in Criminal Courts have transitioned from an outdated database payment system to 18-B Web - an internet-based assignment and payment system on April 14, 2014. All previous court orders dated before April 14, 2014 may be submitted on paper voucher along with the worksheet, and court order for processing and payment.

Upon full integration to the new system, the payment process is streamlined and efficient and, almost, totally paperless.

We expect all experts in Family Courts will be transitioned to the 18-B Web this year. While in this period of transition, vendors note that checks and direct deposit slips do not connect payments to the cases for which the vendor is being compensated. To determine what cases are covered by a check or direct deposit, ACP advises experts in Family and Criminal Court to review the Itemized Payment Statement received attached to their check or direct deposit statement. To determine the case(s) covered, go to www.nyc.gov/18B and in the "Need Help Reading Your Check?" section, enter the "Vendor Code" along with the "Agreement/Voucher#" found on your Itemized Payment Statement. The case information will be provided to you.

Once the papers are approved and filed, the vendor will be placed in the 18-B Web system and eligible for payment.

E. Changes in Account Information

Any changes in information provided by the Expert in setting up the ACP payment account must be provided to ACP Payments as soon as possible to ensure that payments are not delayed or misdirected.

Any changes in information provided by the Expert in setting up an ACP payment account must be provided to the Deputy Director on business letter head and must include both original information provided as well as the change(s) to be applied to the account information. In addition, a Substitute W-9 form must accompany the letter and must indicate the updated information.

F. Paper Checks

While paper checks are one of two options vendors may choose as the payment vehicle for their ACP payments, the paper check method is discouraged due to a protracted wait for payment by mail as well as the increase in the possibility that the check may be misdirected, lost, destroyed or stolen.

G. Electronic Funds Payment (EFT)

The ACP Director recommends that vendors receive their ACP payments through the EFT Direct Deposit Program offered by the city’s Department of Finance. Contact Howard Gross at the Department of Finance at (212) 291-4824 for instructions on how to register for this efficient payment option.

H. Managing Financial Transactions with the City of New York

Once payment information leaves ACP for upload to FISA for payment by check or direct deposit, vendors may access their current and past financial transaction information with the City via the Payee Information Portal (PIP).

To set up a PIP account, enter <http://a127-pip.nyc.gov/webapp/PRDPIP/SelfService> and follow the directions provided. Should you have any questions concerning use of this service, please contact the FISA Call Center at (212) 857-1700.

I. Requests for Voucher Payment Status or other Payment-Related Inquiries

All questions concerning payment and voucher processing must be directed to the payment clerk who is responsible for reviewing that type of voucher. As responsibilities of ACP payment clerks are rotated, attorneys unsure of the clerk handling family court attorneys in the 2nd Department should contact the Deputy Director of Payments for this question and for any unresolved issues concerning payments.

ACP requests that payment issues brought to staff at ACP be communicated via e-mail. Email communications eliminate missed calls and allow the clerks to respond when they are not engaged in payment, allowing for faster payments in general. 104

Procedures for Submission of Vouchers

Family Court Assigned (“18-B”) vouchers must be sent to the Assigned Counsel Plan, 253 Broadway, 8th Floor, New York, New York, 10007.

Attorneys for Children vouchers, and Attorneys for Children Expert vouchers pursuant to Section 35 of the Judiciary Law for services rendered in connection with Family Court matters, and 18-B Appeals vouchers should be submitted for processing to the Attorneys for Children Program, Appellate Division, Second Judicial Department, 335 Adams Street, 24th Floor, Brooklyn, NY 11201.

Judiciary Law § 35 (8) vouchers must be approved by the Supreme Court Justice and should then be directed to the Attorneys for Children Program Office for payment processing.

In Supreme Court cases, experts are to bill the State on a JC-2020 voucher. Please familiarize yourself with the Compensation and Reimbursement section pertaining to experts (see Table of Contents, Chapter V - Administrative Policies and Procedures.)

OBTAINING TRIAL TRANSCRIPTS

To obtain transcripts for use in representing a client in a trial court, assigned counsel must obtain a Minute Order Form from the office of the Chief Stenographer of your local Family Court, and then take the following steps:

1. The assigned counsel must complete the top portion of the Minute Order Form and present the form to the Family Court for the judge's authorization.
2. The Family Court will then retain a copy of the form and return the remaining copies to the assigned counsel for transmittal to the court reporter.
3. Upon receiving the form with the judge's endorsement, the court reporter will prepare two certified copies of the transcript, file one copy with the Family Court Clerk, and deliver the other copy to the assigned counsel.
4. When the transcript is delivered, the assigned counsel will endorse the appropriate portion of the form.
5. The reporter will retain a copy of the form and forward the remaining copies, together with a completed Family Court Voucher to the Assigned Counsel Program office for review and payment.

The expense involved in ordering transcripts from court reporters is a County (city) expense unless the court has determined that the parties are responsible for the cost.

Utilization of these forms will make it unnecessary for assigned counsel to incur out-of-pocket expenses when ordering transcripts.

A copy of the New York State Family Court Minute Order Form will be found in the Assigned Counsel Forms section of this Handbook.

OBTAINING MECHANICALLY RECORDED TRANSCRIPTS

To request a transcript of a mechanically recorded proceeding, assigned counsel must complete a Transcript Request Form and a Voucher for Court Reporter Services.

Completed forms are to be submitted to the Part Clerk with the Order for Approval of Transcript of Record.

The Part Clerk will then attach the Transcript Request Form, Voucher and Order and deliver them to the appropriate clerk's office.

A copy of the Transcript Request Form, the Voucher for Court Reporter Services and the Order for Approval of Transcript of Record will be found in the Assigned Counsel Forms section of this Handbook.

JUDICIARY LAW § 35 (8)

§35 (8) Assignment of Counsel to Indigent Persons

Whenever supreme court shall exercise jurisdiction over a matter which the family court might have exercised jurisdiction had such action or proceeding been commenced in family court or referred thereto pursuant to law, and under circumstances whereby, if such proceedings were pending in family court, such court would be required by section two hundred and sixty-two of the family court act to appoint counsel, supreme court shall also appoint counsel and such counsel shall be compensated in accordance with the provisions of this section.

Judiciary Law § 35 (8) Vouchers

Counsel appointed pursuant to Section 35 of the Judiciary Law are compensated at the rate of $75 per each hour of in-court or out-of court work.

Vouchers for eligible services must be approved by the Supreme Court Justice and should then be sent to the Office of Attorneys for Children for payment processing by the appropriate District Administrative Judge's office. The order of appointment should accompany the voucher. For a copy of the Judiciary Law § 35 (8) voucher, please refer to the Table of Contents, under Chapter IX, Assigned Counsel in Supreme Court Pursuant to § 35 (8) of the Judiciary Law, b. Relevant Forms.

1. Procedure for Reimbursement for Expenses of Representation

In order to be reimbursed for expenses of representation, i.e., transcript costs, you must provide complete documentation, including a receipt and itemization of these expenses. These costs should be indicated on the Judiciary Law 35 (8) voucher under III. Expense of Representation. Legible receipts in the form of a cancelled check, or other document that clearly indicates that the bill was paid, must be submitted together with the 35 (8) voucher. For a copy of the Judiciary Law § 35 (8) voucher, please refer to the Table of Contents, under Chapter IX, Assigned Counsel in Supreme Court Pursuant to § 35 (8) of the Judiciary Law.

Summary of Expenses of Representation:

- Office overhead will not be reimbursed. For example, expenses for in-office computer-assisted legal research (e.g. Westlaw and Lexis) are considered overhead and will not be reimbursed.

- Time spent performing administrative duties, including secretarial tasks is not compensable.

- Please note that voucher preparation time is not compensable.

-Transcripts:

- Reimbursable up to $2.50 per page pursuant to OCA guidelines.

- Phone Charges:

- Only long distance telephone charges may be reimbursed; copy of telephone bill must be submitted.

- Photocopying:

- 15 cents per copy limit; the number of copies must be indicated;

- example: 10 copies x 15 cents = $1.50;
- in excess of 50 pages, a receipt must be submitted

- Postage:

- $15.00 limit without receipts;
- Federal Express, Certified Mail, etc., may be reimbursed;
- Reimbursement claims for more than $15.00 must be documented by receipt.

-Travel Expenses:

-mileage: As of January 1, 2015, the rate is .575 per mile; from January 1, 2014, the rate was .56 per mile; from December 31, 2012, the rate was .555 per mile; from January 1, 2009 through June 30, 2011, the rate was .550 per mile; from July 1, 2008 through December 31, 2008 the rate was .585 per mile.

You will only be reimbursed for mileage incurred to or from a visit to a client. You must indicate the number of miles traveled.

--tolls: receipt required;

-time spent traveling to and from court is not compensable.

2. Procedure for Payment of Expert Services Pursuant to Judiciary Law § 35 (8)

a. Upon obtaining permission from the trial court judge for the appointment of an expert interpreter, social worker, investigator, psychiatrist or psychologist and the assent of the expert, in cases where the court determines that the parties are financially unable to pay for the cost of the expert services, it will order them at the expense of the State. An order, pursuant to Judiciary Law § 35, should be prepared by the attorney including the name and full address of the proposed expert, and submitted to the court. For a sample order, see Table of Contents, Chapter V - Administrative Policies and Procedures (c) (5).

b. Experts are to bill the State (for both adults and children) on a JC-2020 voucher.

c. If the court determines that the parties have the financial means to pay for the cost of the expert services, the parties will pay for this expense and such services will not be a State charge. Only in situations where the court determines that one of the parties has the financial means to pay for cost of the expert services, should there be an apportionment between the party with the financial means and the State.

3. Compensation of Experts

The Chief Administrator of the Courts has adopted the following hourly rates as guidelines for payment of non-lawyer professionals under Judiciary Law § 35:

Psychiatrist	125.00
Certified Psychologist	90.00

Physician	200.00
Certified Social Worker	45.00
Licensed Investigator	32.00

Before preparing the order, the attorney should consult with the expert to obtain the best possible estimate of the time necessary for the expert to perform the necessary service. This will enable the attorney to estimate the cost of the service. In the event that a greater expenditure of time is required than originally anticipated, the mental health professional may apply to the court for additional fees in excess of the sum set forth in the order (see 22 NYCRR § 680.6). The court should then issue a Supplemental Order. Only upon a written showing of “extraordinary circumstances” will compensation be awarded in excess of the statutory maximum of $300.00.

If you have any questions regarding the guidelines and requirements as set forth above, please feel free to contact the Attorneys for Children Office.
