19TH ANNUAL MEETING

National Consortium on Racial and
Ethnic Fairness in the Courts

Saving Our Children: Justice and
Fair Treatment of Youth in the Courts

MAY 2-5, 2007

The Franklin H. Williams Judicial Commission on Minorities (Commission), in conjunction with the New York State Unified Court System, will host the 19th Annual Conference of the National Consortium on Racial and Ethnic Fairness in the Courts (NCREFC). The conference will take place from Wednesday, May 2 to Saturday, May 5, 2007. The conference will be held at the Marriott Hotel at the Brooklyn Bridge.

The theme of the conference is "Saving our Children: Justice and Fair Treatment of Youth in the Courts." The Commission will welcome representatives from the fifty states of the United States, bringing cross-cultural and cross-generational voices to the table to offer insight on some of the issues facing our youth within the court system. The conference will feature nationally renowned speakers who will stimulate dialogue and solutions on these issues. (Theme artwork created by Halima Cassell)
