(Committed on or after Sept. 1, 1995)
(Revised<sup>1</sup>)

The (specify) count is Murder in the First Degree.

Under our law, a defendant is guilty of Murder in the First Degree when, with intent to cause the death of another person, the defendant causes the death of such person [or of a third person]<sup>2</sup>, and the intended victim had previously testified in a criminal action or proceeding and the killing was committed for the purpose of exacting retribution for such prior testimony, and the defendant was more than eighteen (18) years old at the time of the commission of the crime.

The definition of the crime requires that the defendant cause the death for the purpose of exacting retribution for the intended victim's prior testimony. It is not required that the death be caused only for that purpose. What is required is that the motivation to exact retribution was a substantial reason for the murder.<sup>3</sup>

The following terms used in that definition have a special meaning:

INTENT means conscious objective or purpose. Thus, a person acts with intent to cause the death of another person when his or her conscious objective or purpose is to cause the death of that person.<sup>4</sup>

A CRIMINAL ACTION OR PROCEEDING is any proceeding which involves a criminal investigation, or which constitutes part of a criminal prosecution, or which occurs in a criminal court and is related to any prospective, pending, or completed criminal prosecution.<sup>5</sup>

In order for you to find the defendant guilty of this crime, the People are required to prove, from all the evidence in the case, beyond a reasonable doubt, each of the following five elements:

1. That on or about (date), in the county of (county), the defendant, (defendant's name), caused the death of (specify);
2. That the defendant did so with the intent to cause the death of (specify);
3. That (specify) had previously testified in a criminal action or proceeding;
4. That the killing was committed for the purpose of exacting retribution for such prior testimony; and
5. That the defendant was more than eighteen (18)

<sup>4</sup>See Penal Law § 15.05(1). For an expanded charge on intent, see General Charges, Culpable Mental States, Intent.

<sup>5</sup> This charge integrates CPL § 1.20(16) & (18). See CPL § 1.20(16) for the definition of "criminal action" and CPL § 1.20(18) for the definition of "criminal proceeding."

years old at the time of the commission of the crime.

If you find the People have proven beyond a reasonable doubt each of those elements, you must find the defendant guilty of this crime.

If you find the People have not proven beyond a reasonable doubt any one or more of those elements, you must find the defendant not guilty of this crime.

[NOTE: If either of the affirmative defenses -- Extreme Emotional Disturbance (§ 125.27(2)(a)) or Aiding a Suicide (§ 125.27(2)(b)) -- applies, omit the final two paragraphs of the above charge, and substitute one of the charges at the end of this article.]
