

CEMETERY DESECRATION IN THE FIRST DEGREE
Penal Law § 145.23(a)
(Committed on or after November 1, 1997)

The (specify) count is Cemetery Desecration in the First Degree.

Under our law, a person is guilty of cemetery desecration in the first degree when with intent to damage property of another person, and having no right to do so nor any reasonable ground to believe that he has such right, he or she damages any real or personal property maintained as a cemetery plot, grave, burial place or other place of interment of human remains in an amount exceeding two hundred fifty dollars; or

The following term used in that definition has a special meaning:

INTENT means a conscious objective or purpose. Thus, a person acts with intent to damage property of another person when his or her conscious objective or purpose is to do so.<sup>1</sup>

The amount of damage to property is determined by the cost of repair or the replacement of the property, whichever is less.<sup>2</sup>

In order for you to find the defendant guilty of this crime, the People are required to prove, from all of the evidence in the case, beyond a reasonable doubt, each of the following three elements:

1. That on or about (date), in the county of (county), the defendant, (defendant's name), damaged real or personal property, maintained as a cemetery plot, grave, burial place or other place of interment of human remains, in an amount exceeding two hundred fifty dollars;

2. That the defendant did so with the intent to damage property of another person; and
3. That the defendant had no right to cause such damage nor any reasonable ground to believe he/she had such right.

If you find the People have proven beyond a reasonable doubt each of those elements, you must find the defendant guilty of this crime.

If you find the People have not proven beyond a reasonable doubt any one or more of those elements, you must find the defendant not guilty of this crime.
