In order for you to find the defendant guilty of this crime, the People are required to prove, from all the evidence in the case, beyond a reasonable doubt, both of the following two elements:

1. That from (specify time period), defendant, (defendant's name), in the county of (county),<sup>6</sup> acted as a director of a controlled substance organization during any period of twelve months or less, during which period such controlled substance organization sold one or more controlled substances; and

<sup>4</sup> Where "knowingly and unlawfully sells" is defined in another count or when sale is not the criminal purpose alleged for the controlled substance organization, it should be omitted here.

<sup>6</sup> With respect to the county wherein the crime is alleged to have been committed, if venue or jurisdiction is at issue, the trial judge is advised to charge the applicable Venue charge contained in the General Charges section.

If you find the People have proven beyond a reasonable doubt both of those elements, you must find the defendant guilty of this crime.

If you find the People have not proven beyond a reasonable doubt either one or both of those elements, you must find the defendant not guilty of this crime.
