which has been defaced for the purpose of concealment or prevention of the detection of a crime or misrepresenting the identity of such (specify the weapon).

The following terms used in that definition have a special meaning:

A person KNOWINGLY buys, receives, disposes of, or conceals (specify the weapon) which has been defaced for the purpose of concealment or prevention of the detection of a crime or misrepresenting the identity of (specify the weapon) when that person is aware that he or she is buying, receiving, disposing of, or concealing such (specify the weapon) for that purpose.⁴

² By comparison, Penal Law § 265.02 requires that the actor “knowingly” possess a machine-gun, firearm, rifle, or shotgun, which has been defaced for a stated purpose. A large capacity ammunition feeding device is not one of the specified weapons, as it is in the present crime. Thus, the utility of the present crime is primarily its applicability to a “large capacity feeding device.”

“DISPOSE OF” means to dispose of, give, give away, lease-loan, keep for sale, offer, offer for sale, sell, transfer, and otherwise dispose of.⁵

“DEFACE” means to remove, deface, cover, alter or destroy the manufacturer’s serial number or any other distinguishing number or identification mark.⁶

Select appropriate weapon definition:

LARGE CAPACITY AMMUNITION FEEDING DEVICE means a magazine, belt, drum, feed strip, or similar device, [manufactured after September 13, 1994⁷], that has a capacity of, or that can be readily restored or converted to accept, more than ten rounds of ammunition.⁸

⁴ Penal Law § 15.05(2).

⁵ Penal Law § 265.00(6).

⁶ Penal Law § 265.00(7).

⁷ Effective January 15, 2013, the requirement that the device be “manufactured after September 13, 1994 was repealed. L.2013, c. 1, as amended by L.2013, c. 57].

⁸ See Penal Law § 265.00(23). As may be appropriate to include, the statutory definition of “large capacity feeding device” continues:

“provided, however, that such term does not include an attached tubular device designed to accept, and capable of operating only with, .22 caliber rimfire ammunition or a feeding device that is a curio or relic. A feeding device that is a curio or relic is defined as a device that (i) was manufactured at least fifty years prior to the current date, (ii) is only capable of being used exclusively in a firearm, rifle, or shotgun that was manufactured at least fifty years prior to the current date, but not including replicas thereof, (iii) is possessed by an individual who is not prohibited by state or federal law from possessing a firearm and (iv) is registered with the division of state police pursuant to subdivision sixteen-a of section 400.00 of this chapter, except such feeding devices transferred into the state may be registered at any time, provided they are registered within thirty days of their transfer into the state. Notwithstanding paragraph (h) of subdivision twenty-two of this section, such feeding devices may be transferred provided that such transfer shall be subject to the provisions of section 400.03 of this chapter including the check required to be conducted pursuant to such section.”

MACHINE-GUN means a weapon of any description, irrespective of size, by whatever name known, loaded or unloaded, from which a number of shots or bullets may be rapidly or automatically discharged from a magazine with one continuous pull of the trigger and includes a sub-machine gun.⁹

A FIREARM means any pistol or revolver.¹⁰

RIFLE means a weapon designed or redesigned, made or remade, and intended to be fired from the shoulder and designed or redesigned and made or remade to use the energy of the explosive in a fixed metallic cartridge to fire only a single projectile through a rifled bore for each single pull of the trigger.¹¹

SHOTGUN means a weapon designed or redesigned, made or remade, and intended to be fired from the shoulder and designed or redesigned and made or remade to use the energy of the explosive in a fixed shotgun shell to fire through a smooth bore either a number of ball shot or a single projectile for each single pull of the trigger.¹²

Add to the definition of firearm, rifle, or shotgun:

The (specify) need not be loaded but it must be operable. To be operable, a (specify) must be capable of discharging ammunition.¹³

⁹ See Penal Law § 265.00(1).

¹⁰ Penal Law § 265.00(3). If the firearm involved is other than a pistol or revolver, see the "Additional Charges" section at the end of the Table of Contents of the Article 265 charges and substitute the appropriate definition.

¹¹ Penal Law § 265.00(11).

¹² Penal Law § 265.00(12).

¹³ Case law has added "operability" of the firearm, rifle or shotgun, as the case may be, to its definition [People v. Longshore, 86 NY2d 851, 852 (1995)], but it has further held that there is no requirement that the possessor know the firearm was operable. People v. Ansare, 96 AD2d 96 (4th Dept 1983). Cf. People v. Saunders, 85 NY2d 339, 341-42 (1995).

In order for you to find the defendant guilty of this crime, the People are required to prove, from all the evidence in the case, beyond a reasonable doubt, each of the following [two/three] elements:

1. That on or about (date), in the County of (County), the defendant, (defendant's name), bought, received, disposed of, or concealed (specify the weapon) which had been defaced for the purpose of concealment or prevention of the detection of a crime or misrepresenting the identity of such (specify the weapon); [and]
2. That the defendant did so knowingly; [and]

NOTE: Omit (3) if the weapon is a "machine gun" which by definition includes "operability." Add (3) if the weapon is a "firearm," "rife," or "shotgun" because decisional law requires that the weapon be operable, and the definitions do not include a requirement of operability:

3. That the (specify the weapon) was operable.

If you find that the People have proven beyond a reasonable doubt (each / both) of those elements, you must find the defendant guilty of this crime.

If you find that the People have not proven beyond a reasonable doubt (either one / any one or more) of those elements, you must find the defendant not guilty of this crime.
