charge:

Thus, insertion of a finger in the vagina [or urethra] [or penis] [or rectum] of such a person is always deemed to be without that person's consent, even if in fact that person did consent.

In order for you to find the defendant guilty of this crime, the People are required to prove from all the evidence in the case beyond a reasonable doubt, both of the following two elements:

1. That on or about (date), in the county of (County), the defendant (defendant's name), without a valid medical purpose, inserted a finger into the vagina [or urethra] [or penis] [or rectum] of (complainant's name) causing him/her physical injury; and
2. That (complainant's name) was incapable of consenting to the insertion.

Therefore, if you find that the People have proven beyond a reasonable doubt, both of those elements, you must find the defendant guilty of the crime of Aggravated Sexual Abuse in the Fourth Degree as charged in the _____ count.

On the other hand, if you find that the People have not proven beyond a reasonable doubt either one or both of those elements, you must find the defendant not guilty of the crime of Aggravated Sexual Abuse in the Fourth Degree as charged in the _____ count.

[NOTE: If an affirmative defense set forth in Penal Law §130.10 applies, omit the final two paragraphs of the above charge, and substitute the charge at the end of this article.]

[NOTE: Where lack of consent results solely from incapacity to consent because of the alleged victim's mental disability or mental incapacity, a charge on corroboration is required. Penal

Law § 130.16. See charge at the end of this article.]
