- (a) The term ESI shall include, but not be limited to, e-mails and attachments, voice mail, instant messaging and other electronic communications, word processing documents, text files, hard drive spreadsheets, graphics, audio and video files, databases/calendars, telephone logs, transaction logs, internet usage files, off-line storage or information stored on removable media, information contained on laptops or other portable devices and network access information and backup materials, Native Files and the corresponding Metadata which is ordinarily maintained.
- (b) Within 10 days of the execution of this PC Order; all signatories hereto shall, in compliance with Rule 8(b) of the Uniform Commercial Division Rules (22 NYCRR 202.70), submit to the Court a copy of the agreed written plan/stipulation for the preservation of ESI related documents, data and tangible things reasonably anticipated to be subject to discovery in this action. Such plan, which may be updated, shall identify the categories of ESI to be preserved, individuals responsible for preservation, maintenance and production of ESI and issues relating to potential costs of maintenance, preservation and production of ESI. In the alternative, counsel may stipulate to limit and/or eliminate the discovery of ESI in whole or part and/or forego or limit the production of information in electronic form. A copy of such stipulation must be submitted to the court within 10 days of this Order.

- (c) For the relevant periods relating to the issues in this litigation, each party shall take all reasonable steps (including suspending aspects of ordinary computer processing and/or backup of data that may compromise or destroy ESI) necessary to maintain and preserve such ESI as may be (i) relevant to the parties' claims and/or defenses, or (ii) reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, including but not limited to all such ESI data generated by and/or stored on the party's computer system(s) and/or any computer system and storage media (i.e., internal and external hard drives, hard disks, floppy disks, memory sticks, flash drives and backup tapes), under the party's possession, custody and/or control. The failure to comply herewith may result in appropriate sanctions or such other relief as the court may be authorized to impose or award, including but not limited to precluding use of evidence, taking adverse inferences, and/or rendering judgment in whole or part against the offending party(ies).

- (d) (i) When ESI is produced, it shall be produced on appropriate electronic media (i.e., CD, DVD or portable hard drive) in the following format(s), as may be agreed:

_____ Digital images endorsed with numbers and confidentiality legends, searchable text, and agreed-to metadata fields with regard to the following data:
