How to Respond to the Petition

1. Your response to the Petition is called an Answer.
2. An Answer tells your side of the case and gives the legal reasons why you should not be responsible for the claims made by the tenant(s). These legal reasons are called defenses.
3. You must put your Answer in writing and serve a copy on Petitioner (for more information on how to serve legal papers: <https://nycourts.gov/CourtHelp/GoingToCourt/service.shtml>).

Note: If Petitioner serves you with the Petition eight days or more before the court date, you must serve Petitioner with a copy of your Answer at least three days before the court date. Petitioner must then serve you with any Reply at least one day before the court date.

4. You must file your Answer with the court on or before your first court date.
5. If you do not serve and file an Answer, the judge can issue a judgment to appoint an administrator. The judgment will direct that:
 - a) The tenants making this application (petitioning tenants), if any, must deposit all rents due with the administrator starting on the date of the judgment
 - b) Any tenants not included in this application (non-petitioning tenants) must deposit all rents due with the administrator starting on the date they are served with the judgment
