

The New York City Family Court conducts proceedings in-person, by telephone, and via video conference.

To file a petition, motion, or stipulation:

If you are an UNREPRESENTED INDIVIDUAL, you can go to the New York City Family Court building in the county where your case is pending or where you intend to file a new case. Contact information for the Family Courts in New York City can be found using the link below:

Info By County - New York City | NYCOURTS.GOV

OR you may submit the petition, motion, or stipulation via email:

Bronx Family Court: BronxFamilyCourt@nycourts.gov

Kings Family Court (Brooklyn): KingsFamilyCourt@nycourts.gov

New York County Family Court (Manhattan): manhattanfamilycourt@nycourts.gov

Queens Family Court: QueensFamilyCourt@nycourts.gov

Richmond (Staten Island): RichmondFamilyCourt@nycourts.gov

OR you may submit the petition, motion, or stipulation using the Electronic Document Delivery System (EDDS). For information on using EDDS, go to:

EDDS: Getting Started \(state.ny.us\)

ATTORNEYS should use the Electronic Document Delivery System (EDDS) for the submission of documents to the court.

NEW NYSCEF E-Filing – At this time, e-filing \(NYSCEF\) is available only in New York (Manhattan), Richmond (Staten Island), and Queens for the following case types:

- Custody/Visitation/Guardianship
- Parentage – Assisted Reproduction and Parentage – Surrogacy
- Paternity/Support