

Due to the ongoing risk of COVID-19 transmission, the New York City Family Court conducts proceedings in-person, by telephone and via video conference.

To file a petition, motion or stipulation:

If you are an UNREPRESENTED INDIVIDUAL, you can go to the New York City Family Court building in the county where your case is pending or where you intend to file a new case. Contact information for the Family Courts in New York City can be found using the link below:

Info By County - New York City Family Court | NYCOURTS.GOV

OR

Submit the petition, motion or stipulation via email:

- BronxApplications@nycourts.gov (Bronx)
- NYApplications@nycourts.gov (Manhattan)
- KingsApplications@nycourts.gov (Brooklyn)
- RichmondApplications@nycourts.gov (Staten Island)
- QueensApplications@nycourts.gov (Queens)

OR

Submit the petition, motion or stipulation using the Electronic Document Delivery System (EDDS).

For information on using EDDS, go to:

Electronic Document Delivery System User Guide

ATTORNEYS should use the Electronic Document Delivery System (EDDS) for the submission of documents to the court.