5. Click on the first title in your results list. The detailed information informs you that this article is not available within an online service and it does not list any libraries that own this item in print.

Title	Cyberbullying: A New Frontier and a New Standard A Survey of and Proposed Changes to State Cyberbullying Statutes (Note)
Author	by Colleen Barnett
Publication	Quinnipiac University School Of Law
Publication Date	2009
Volume	27
Issue or Number	2

To the right of the table, a red circle highlights a message: 'To retrieve an article, you may contact or visit a holding library, use a cited online service, or, if for personal or educational use, request a digital copy using the provided request form: Request a Copy'.

6. You may use the request a copy option at the right side of the screen to have this item sent to your email - (or if you have a title you need already, go directly to the Document Delivery Service at <http://www.nycourts.gov/lawlibraries/document-service.shtml>).

The screenshot shows the NY Courts.gov website. The top navigation bar includes links for MAIN MENU, HOME, THE COURTS, E-COURTS, REPRESENTING YOURSELF, THE LAW, JURORS, JUDGES, LEGAL PROFESSION, and TOPICS A to Z. A search bar is located on the right side of the navigation bar. The main header features the NY COURTS.GOV logo and the text 'NEW YORK STATE UNIFIED COURT SYSTEM'. Below the header is a green bar with the text 'LAW LIBRARIES'. A sidebar on the left contains a list of links: Library Locations, Library Services, Glossaries of Legal Terms, Law-Related Websites, Decisions, Judiciary's Legislative Program, Forms, Filing Fees, E-Courts, and Contact Us. The main content area is titled 'Library Materials Document Delivery Service' and includes a 'Copyright Notice' section. A red circle highlights the 'Request library materials' section.

Copyright Notice

Please read the copyright notice provided below as all services are governed by its dictates.

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the reproduction, distribution, adaptation, public performance, and public display of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these provided conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve a violation of copyright law.

Request library materials

Library materials requested will be forwarded to your e-mail address. Generally e-mail requests are filled within two (2) business days. Fax requests may result in a slight delay. Should an item be unavailable locally or online, you will be contacted. Should you request more than 4 documents per week, you may expect a delay in the processing of the request.

If you request materials forwarded to a fax number, please include a telephone number. We reserve the right to limit the amount of material sent by fax to a reasonable number of pages.

All requests are filled during normal hours of court operation (Monday - Friday 9:00 AM - 5:00 PM EST, excluding legal holidays and court recess).

Online Service	Lexis Westlaw Hein Online
Holding Library	Appellate Division 4th Library Kings Co. Supreme Court Library

A red circle highlights the "Online Service" and "Holding Library" fields. A red arrow points to the word "Cyberbullying" in the title. On the right side of the page, there is a note: "To retrieve an article, you may contact or visit a holding library, use a cited online service, or, if for personal or educational use, request a digital copy using the provided request form: Request a Copy".

8. The E-Research locator will also identify which online service includes your law review/journal by title.

Click on Browse in the green heading bar.

Select Titles or Resources Available Online from the dropdown menu.

The screenshot shows the NY Courts.gov website interface. At the top, there is a green navigation bar with 'Search', 'Browse', and 'My Account' buttons. The 'Browse' button is circled in red, and a red arrow points to the dropdown menu that is open below it. The dropdown menu contains several options, with 'Titles or Resources Available Online' circled in red. The main content area shows search results for 'Legal Journal Articles (10)'. The results list various articles related to cyberbullying, such as 'Cyberbullying: A New Frontier and a New Standard A Survey of and Proposed Changes to State Cyberbullying Statutes (Note)' and 'Faceless Bullies: Legislative and Judicial Responses to Cyberbullying (Note)'. The page includes search filters, a 'Show' dropdown set to 'Legal Journal Articles (10)', and a 'Sort by' dropdown set to 'Most to Least Relevant'.

- Click on the title Law Journals / Law Reivews.
Click on the + sign to display subfolders.
