Motion No. 2026-01564
Index No. 152550/24
Case No. 2026-00654

Storage Mart, LLC, et al.,
Defendants-Respondents.

An appeal having been taken to this Court from an order of the Supreme Court, New York County, entered on or about August 19, 2024,

And plaintiff-appellant, pro se, having moved for a waiver of costs, fees, and expenses on appeal, for assignment of counsel, for leave to perfect the appeal via digital submission rather than a printed record, for reasonable accommodations pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act, including electronic filing and alternate service, extended filing deadlines when medically necessary, remote oral argument, and “Communication Accommodations” as needed, for an extension of time in which to perfect the appeal, to stay enforcement of dismissal of the action and any collateral consequences pending determination of the appeal, to stay any sale, transfer, disposal, destruction, or encumbrance of plaintiff’s personal and business property and directing preservation of same pending determination of the appeal, and for a declaration that denial of procedural avenues necessary to perfect the appeal due to indigence and disability would violate due process and meaningful access to the courts,

Now, upon reading and filing the papers with respect to the motion, and due deliberation having been had thereon,

It is ordered that the motion is granted to the extent of permitting plaintiff-appellant to file her brief and record electronically via NYSCEF and extending the time in which to perfect the appeal to the October 2026 Term of this Court with no further extensions, and otherwise, the motion is denied.
