ORDER

The New York and Presbyterian Hospital, Boro Park Operating Co., LLC and Williamsburg Services, LLC, Defendants.

-----X

After a telephonic status conference, this Court orders the following:

The deposition of the plaintiff shall be held via a virtual platform prior to the compliance date. Plaintiff shall also produce all non-party witnesses (under her control), including, but not limited to plaintiff's daughter who donated her kidney, for a deposition prior to the compliance date.

On or before July 3, 2020, plaintiff shall provide the following: the notes and/or notebooks referred to during plaintiff's initial deposition; a certificate of merit; and with respect to the disclosed photographs of the wound: the location of plaintiff when the photographs were taken and the identity of who took the photographs.

On or before July 3, 2020, defendants shall comply with all outstanding discovery requests.

All parties shall appear for a compliance conference on August 3, 2020 at 10:00AM.

Plaintiff must file the Note of Issue on or before October 2, 2020. Failure to file the Note of Issue will result in this matter being placed on a disposition calendar after the Note of Issue due date and may also result in this action being dismissed based on want of prosecution, pursuant to CPLR 3216.

This constitutes the Order of this Court.
