APPOINT - FIDUCIARY

Upon the foregoing documents, the motion is determined as follows:

The within action is to foreclose on a consolidated amended and restated commercial mortgage, dated January 25, 2018, encumbering a parcel of commercial real property located at 350-354 6th Avenue, New York, New York. The mortgage secures a loan in the original principal amount of $15,850,000.00 given to Defendant Nuovo Ciao-DI, LLC ("Nuovo") by Plaintiff and memorialized by a consolidated, amended and restated promissory note of the same date.

The mortgage at issue contained the following provision under section 10[a]:

Upon the occurrence of any Event of Default, Mortgagee may take such action, without notice or demand, as it deems advisable to protect and enforce its rights against Mortgagor and in and to the Mortgaged Property, by Mortgagee itself or otherwise, including the following actions, each of which may be pursued concurrently or otherwise, at such time and in such order as Mortgagee may determine, in its sole discretion, without impairing or otherwise affecting the other rights and remedies of Mortgagee:

(vii) apply for the appointment of a trustee, receiver, liquidator or conservator of the Mortgaged Property, without notice and without regard for the adequacy of the security for the Debt and without regard for the solvency of the Mortgagor or of any person, firm or other entity liable for the payment of the Debt

Now, Plaintiff moves pursuant to RPL §254[10] and RPAPL §1325 for the appointment of a temporary receiver of the rents of the mortgaged premises. Defendants Nuovo Ciao-Di LLC, Metropolitan Realty and Development Group, LLC, William Rainero s/h/a William Raniero, Michael Rainero s/h/a Michael Raniero, Joseph Rainero s/h/a Joseph Raniero, Yvonne Rainero, Denise Rainero s/h/a Denise Raniero, and Georgette Doyle oppose the motion.

Under Real Property Law §254[10], the appointment of a receiver in the event of a default is proper where the parties to the mortgage agree to same even without notice or without regard to the sufficiency of security (see ADHY Advisors LLC. v 530 W. 152nd St. LLC, 82 AD3d 619 [1st Dept 2011]; 366 Fourth St. Corp. v Foxfire Enters., 149 AD2d 692 [2nd Dept 1989]). Despite the parties' contractual assent, the appointment is not perfunctory and the court, in the exercise of its equitable power, retains the discretion to deny the appointment of a receiver (see ADHY Advisors LLC. v 530 W. 152nd St. LLC, supra; Nechadim Corp. v Simmons, 171 AD3d 1195, 1197 [2nd Dept 2019]).

In the present case, it is undisputed that the parties' mortgage provided Plaintiff may apply for the appointment of a receiver regardless of the adequacy of the property as security and that, among other violations, Defendant Mortgagor defaulted in repayment under the note. Accordingly, Plaintiff established its entitlement to the appointment of a receiver of the mortgaged premises (see eg CSFB 2004-C3 Bronx Apts LLC v. Sinckler, Inc., 96 AD3d 680 [2nd Dept 2012]).

In opposition, Defendants' reliance on CPLR §6401 and the cases interpreting same is inapposite as that authority does not concern the situation as presented here where appointment of the receiver was sought under RPL §254[10] and pursuant to an express agreement (see Mesa W. Real Estate Income Fund III, LLC v Sterling Portfolio 196 LP, ___ Misc3d ___, 2021 NY Slip Op 30261[U][Sup Ct Kings Cty 2021]). Substantively, Defendants have not demonstrated that denial of the appointment of a receiver is an appropriate exercise of the court's discretion (see eg Shaw Funding, LP v Bennett, 185 AD3d 857, 858 [2nd Dept 2020]; Nechadim Corp. v Simmons, supra).

Accordingly, it is

ORDERED that the motion for the appointment of a Temporary Receiver is granted; and it is further

ORDERED that, in accordance with Plaintiff's request, George E. Shoup III ("Shoup") of Development Specialists, Inc. ("DSI"), is hereby appointed with the usual powers and directions of a Temporary Receiver for the benefit of Plaintiff of all the rents and profits now due and unpaid or become due during the pendency of this action and issuing out the mortgaged property mentioned in the complaint, known by as 350-354 6th Avenue, New York, New York 10011, known as Commercial Unit 1 a/k/a 1FLR and Commercial Unit 2 a/k/a 2FLR in the premises known as 88 Washington Place Condominium; and it is further

ORDERED that anybody in possession of same shall turn over to said Temporary Receiver all rent lists, orders, unexpired and expired leases, agreements, correspondence, notices and registration statements relating to rental spaces or facilities in the premises; and it is further

ORDERED that notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this order, the Temporary Receiver shall not, without the further, prior order of this Court, upon prior notice to the plaintiff, make improvements or substantial repairs to the property at a cost in excess of $2,500.00, except that in an emergency, if funds need to be expended in excess of $2,500 or would otherwise require Court intervention, no Court approval will be necessary if counsel for plaintiff agrees in writing that the receiver may make such disbursement; and it is further

ORDERED that the Temporary Receiver shall deposit all monies received by her/him into any FDIC-insured bank where she has an account for this purpose and such account shall show the name of this action and the Temporary Receiver shall furnish plaintiff's attorneys with monthly statements of the receipts and expenditures of the Receivership together with a photocopy of the monthly statements received from said depository and no withdrawals shall be made therefrom except as directed by the Court or on a draft or check signed by the Temporary Receiver; and it is further

ORDERED that the Temporary Receiver is authorized from time to time to rent and lease any part of the premises for terms not exceeding one (1) year or such longer terms as may be required by applicable laws or regulations; to keep the premises insured against loss by damage or fire; to pay the taxes, assessments, water rates, sewer rates, vault rents, salaries of employees, supplies and other charges; to comply with all lawful requirements of any municipal department or other authority of the municipality in which the mortgaged premises are situated and to procure such fire, liability and other insurance as may be reasonably necessary; and it is further

ORDERED, that the tenants, licensees or other persons in possession of said premises attorn to the Temporary Receiver and pay over to the Temporary Receiver all rents, license fees, and other charges of such premises now due and unpaid or that may hereafter become due; and that the defendants be enjoined and restrained from collecting the rents, license fees and other charges of said premises from interfering in any manner with the property or its possession; and from transferring, removing or in any way disturbing and of the occupants or employees; and that all tenants, occupants, employees and licensees of the premises and other persons liable for the rents be and hereby are enjoined and restrained from paying any rent or license fees or other charges for such premises to the defendants, their agents, servants or attorneys; and it is further

ORDERED that the Temporary Receiver is prohibited from incurring obligations in excess of the monies in her hands without further Order of this Court or written consent of Plaintiff's attorney and Plaintiff may advance money, which can be recouped in this litigation; and it is further

ORDERED that the Owner turn over to the Temporary Receiver all rents collected from and after the date of this Order; and it is further

ORDERED that all persons now and hereafter in possession of said premises, or any part thereof, and not holding such possession under valid and existing leases or tendencies, do forthwith surrender such possession to the Temporary Receiver, subject to emergency laws, if any, and it is further

ORDERED that the Temporary Receiver after paying the expenses of the management and care of the said premises as above provided retain the balance of the monies which may come into his hands until the sale of the said premises under the judgment to be entered in this action and/or until further Order of this Court, and it is further

ORDERED that the Temporary Receiver, or any party hereto, may at any time, on proper notice to all parties who have appeared in this action, apply to the Court for further and other instructions or powers necessary to enable the Temporary Receiver to properly fulfill her duties or for interim fee payments; and it is further

ORDERED that the appointed named herein shall comply with Section 35a of the Judiciary Law, Sections 6401-6404 of the CPLR, Section 1325 of RPAPL and Rule 36 of the Chief Judge; and it is further ORDERED that notwithstanding any other provision of this order, the Temporary Receiver shall not appoint an attorney, managing agent, appraiser, auctioneer or accountant without prior order of this Court, and that the receiver shall apply to the court and file a separate application for appointment of a managing agent, attorney or other managing services pursuant to 36.1 of the Uniform Court Rules.
