Upon the foregoing cited papers, and after oral argument, Plaintiff, Jordan Mingo ("Plaintiff") moves to confirm, the portion of the Amended Report of Referee Jeffrey Miller, Esq. of Miller, Leiby & Associates, P.C., 32 Broadway, 13th Floor, New York, NY 10004, dated May 27, 2022 ("Amended Referee's Report") which determined that (1) the property located at 9510 Avenue A, Brooklyn, New York ("subject property") is held one-quarter each party as tenants in common; (2) that any liens be paid at a closing of the sale of the subject property by the Referee; (3) that the Referee hold all net proceeds, and (4) that an interlocutory judgment of partition and sale be ordered. Plaintiff also moves to deny that part, which determined that Defendant, June Mitchell ("Mitchell") had spent approximately $60,000 more in expenses related to the subject property, and that she is entitled to reimbursement.

The underlying action for partition arises out of the subject property. Pursuant to this Court's Order, dated 9/26/2019, the matter was referred to Referee Miller, to ascertain the rights, shares, and interest of the parties in the subject property. Initially, Mr. Miller notified Plaintiff's counsel, and the Defendants, who at the time were self-represented, to submit evidence and a proposed report by 11/15/2019, at which time the need for a hearing would be assessed. Plaintiff was the only party to submit evidence to Mr. Miller, who thereafter determined that a hearing was not necessary. Mr. Miller issued a Referee's Report on 2/2/2020 (2020 Report), which, inter alia, determined that the subject property be partitioned. This Court by Order dated 1/12/2021, denied Plaintiff's motion to confirm the 2/2/2020 Referee's Report. To wit, the Court directed Mr. Miller to hold a live hearing and issue an Amended Referee's Report. A live hearing was held on 4/6/2021, wherein Defendant Mitchell testified.

The Amended Referee's Report found that the subject property was held as tenants in common, with each party owning one-quarter of the whole, and that a sale be ordered. The Amended Referee's Report also found that Defendant Mitchell had spent approximately $60,000 more in expenses related to the subject property. According to the Amended Referee's Report, "Mitchell proffered that she has spent approximately $60,000.00 more in expenses related to the Property than she has collected in rent from the Property, to which no objection by Plaintiff was made" (NYSCEF Doc. No. 74, Plaintiff's Exhibit "A," Amended Referee's Report, pg. 3, para. 4). Thus, the Referee's Report determined that "$60,000.00 of the sale proceeds, after auction, should be attributed to the share of June Mitchell as reimbursement for her expenses in maintaining the Property, there being no further evidence of rents and expenses beyond her testimony." Id.

Defendant Mitchell testified that Mr. Fernandez had prepared an affidavit of accounting that she signed to substantiate her $60,000 in expenses (see NYSCEF Doc. No. 75, Plaintiff's Exhibit "B", Mitchell Testimony, lines 6-21 pp. 38). The affidavit of accounting was not entered into evidence, as Plaintiff's counsel objected that it was inadmissible hearsay since the accountant who prepared it was unavailable. Id. at 45. However, Defendant Mitchell was permitted to testify as to the expenses incurred based on personal knowledge.

Defendant Mitchell testified that in accordance with her mother's will, she buried her stepfather using the proceeds of the subject property. Consequently, Defendant-Mitchell, incurred the expense of, inter alia, replacing the boiler, replacing the toilets, tiling the basement, and repairing leaks. Id. at 69. Plaintiff did not offer any evidence to rebut Defendant Mitchell's testimony.

Plaintiff now seeks to confirm the Amended Referee's Report in part and deny it in part.

Specifically, Plaintiff contests that portion of the Amended Referee Report, which determined that Defendant Mitchell established that she spent $60,000 more in expenses than the rents she collected at the subject property. According to Plaintiff, this is inconsistent with Referee's finding that Mitchell failed to provide evidence of those expenses.

In opposition, Defendant Mitchell argues that the Referee did not err in his computation of the amounts due to each party in this action. Further, Defendant's Counsel avers that Defendant Mitchell did provide evidence of the expenses by way of an accounting report, which was not admitted into evidence. Moreover, she notes that the Referee considered her un rebutted testimony as to the $60,000 in expenses she incurred.

"The report of a referee should be confirmed whenever the findings are substantially supported by the record, and the referee has clearly defined the issues and resolved matters of credibility" (Flagstar Bank, F.S.B. v Konig, 153 AD3d 790, 790-791 [2d Dept 2017]).

Here, the Referee's determination as to the expenses incurred by Defendant Mitchell for the maintenance of the subject property was based on her un rebutted testimony. Significantly, Plaintiff failed to produce or offer any evidence to rebut her testimony, and did not object to Mitchell's testimony of the expenses incurred. Thus, this Court finds that the Amended Referee Report is substantially supported by the record.

Accordingly, it is,

ORDERED, that the Amended Referee's Report of Jeffrey Miller, Esq., is CONFIRMED in its entirety, and it is further,

ORDERED, that Plaintiff's motion to confirm the Amended Referee's Report in part and deny it in part is DENIED, and it is further,
