were read on this motion to/for CONFIRM/DISAPPROVE AWARD/REPORT.

The petitioners, Bituach Risk Partners LLC, CAPADS Systems LLC, Lake Consulting, LLC,Maravest II LLC, Menglo LLC, Nykolaus Inzlicht, Rochelle Lichtstein, S and B Advisors LLC,TTY Y LLC, UTA of Kiryas Joel, Inc.,Youkore Associates Inc.,Bronx Grandison Trust, Eagle Strategic Advisors LLC, Cong. Tfille Lmoishe of KJ, Shining Light Irrevocable Trust, Tradition Home Care Services LLC, GDMH LLC, Elaine Paperman, Yisrael Klein, and 390 Equities LLC, seek an order pursuant to CPLR 7510 confirming a Modified Final Arbitration Award dated August 20, 2025, issued by a three-member panel of the American Arbitration Association in Case No. 01-21-0016-3298, and pursuant to CPLR 7514 directing entry of judgment thereon.

The respondents, Omni Strategy LLC and Omni Captive LLC, commenced the underlying arbitration seeking declaratory relief regarding the proper disposition of captive underwriting profits (“Captive Funds”) generated through a wage parity captive insurance program. Petitioners are Class B members of respondents and beneficiaries of such profits pursuant to respondents' operating agreements. The arbitration was initiated following amendments to the Home Care Worker Wage Parity Law, Public Health Law § 3614-c(5-a), which became effective April 3, 2020. Respondents asserted that the amendments created uncertainty as to whether approximately $35 million in Captive Funds, derived from pre-effective-date premium payments, could be distributed to petitioners.

The Hon. Emily Pines (Ret.), the Hon. Leonard B. Austin (Ret.), former Appellate Division Justices, and Eugene Farber, Esq., constituted the arbitration panel pursuant to the agreements of the parties. Following bifurcated proceedings, the panel issued a Partial Final Award dated November 9, 2022, determining that § 3614-c(5-a) does not apply retroactively to the Captive Funds. The panel denied respondents' motion for reconsideration on May 12, 2023, including respondents' request that nonparty home health aides be provided notice of the arbitration.

After further proceedings addressing accounting and allocation issues, the panel issued a Final Award in July 2025 and subsequently a Modified Final Award dated August 20, 2025, correcting clerical language. The Modified Final Award directs respondents to distribute the Captive Funds and applicable investment returns to petitioners pursuant to approved allocation methodologies within thirty days of judicial confirmation.

Petitioners now seek confirmation. Respondents oppose the motion pursuant to CPLR 7511(b)(1)(iii), arguing that the panel exceeded its authority by declining to require notice to nonparty home health aides and by determining that the Wage Parity Law amendments do not apply retroactively.

Judicial review of arbitration awards is extremely limited. CPLR 7510 mandates confirmation unless vacatur is warranted under CPLR 7511. A party seeking vacatur bears a heavy burden and must establish by clear and convincing evidence that the arbitrators exceeded their powers or that one of the other narrow statutory grounds exists.

Vacatur further requires a showing of prejudice. Absent prejudice, a court lacks authority to disturb an arbitration award. An arbitrator exceeds authority only where an award violates strong public policy, is irrational, or clearly exceeds a specific limitation on arbitral power. Mere disagreement with an arbitrator's legal conclusions does not provide a basis for vacatur.

Here, respondents fail to establish any statutory ground for vacatur. At the outset, respondents concede that they have no financial interest in the Captive Funds and sought only declaratory relief. Respondents therefore cannot demonstrate prejudice, which alone defeats their application. In any event, the panel acted within its authority.

The panel's determination that Public Health Law § 3614-c(5-a) does not apply retroactively was squarely within the scope of issues submitted for arbitration. New York law presumes statutes operate prospectively absent clear legislative intent to the contrary. See Gottwald v Sebert, 40 NY2d 240 (2023); Matter of Regina Metropolitan Co., LLC v New York State Division of Hous. and Comm. Renewal, 35 NY3d 332 (2020); S.S. v Rockefeller Univ. Hosp., 239 AD3d 424 (1st Dept. 2025). The statute contains no express retroactivity provision. Even if respondents disagree with the panel's interpretation, such disagreement does not constitute an excess of arbitral power. Nor did the panel exceed its authority by declining to order notice to nonparty home health aides. The arbitration concerned contractual rights between respondents and petitioners. The panel properly exercised its discretion in refusing to expand the arbitration to non-signatories.

The court finds that the Modified Final Award was rendered by a duly constituted panel, within the scope of the arbitration agreements, and without corruption, partiality, misconduct, or excess of authority. Petitioners' application pursuant to CPLR 7510 is granted.

ORDERED that the petition is granted in its entirety; and it is further

ORDERED and ADJUDGED that the Modified Final Arbitration Award dated August 20, 2025, issued in American Arbitration Association Case No. 01-21-0016-3298, is confirmed in all respects pursuant to CPLR 7510; and it is further ORDERED that the Clerk of the Court shall enter judgment pursuant to CPLR 7514 in favor of petitioners Bituach Risk Partners LLC, CAPADS Systems LLC, Lake Consulting LLC, Maravest II LLC, Menglo LLC, Nykolau Inzlicht, Rochelle Lichtschein, S and B Advisors LLC, TTY Y LLC, UTA of Kiryas Joel, Inc., Youkore Associates Inc., Bronx Grandison Trust, Eagle Strategic Advisors LLC, Cong.
